Special Menu at BCC Members' Party

With the coming of spring the social life at Birmingham country club is getting under way with plans in the offing for some of the most outstanding affairs in the club's history.

First on the agenda is the "get acquainted" party planned for April 13, when some 30 new members will be special guests.

Manager John Brennan is conferring with chefs in planning a special menu for this event, featuring hot hors d'oeuvres. Brennan says the snacks will be arranged on what he feels is probably the largest tablecloth in Birmingham—a new item just arrived.

THE COMMITTEE for this 4-6 p.m. cocktail party is headed by Mrs. Theodore Chick, assisted by Mesdames E. E. Linstrom, Eugene Tappero, Douglas Williams, Robert Turner and Miss Mary Margaret Loggell. Coming events on the social calendar include the card luncheon and summer fashion show on April 20 and the Easter dance scheduled for this Saturday from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Dinner will be served from 7-10 p.m.
