Girl Scouts Spend Weekend On Troop Campout at Narrin

Girl Scouts Troop 361 of St. Hugo school went on an overnight camping trip to Camp Narrin, Saturday morning, March 26, and returned late Sunday evening.

Mrs. R. M. Neyhart accompanied the troop. The girls spent snow and following trails in their time tobogganing, skiing, woods. Sherry Neyhart and Cathy sledding, treasure-hunting in the Newmyer were among the girls.

representing Troop 361. Mrs. Larry Harwood of Meadowlark drive just returned from Venice, Fla., with her two sons, Larry, Jr. and Jack, after visiting Mrs. Harwood's mother for three weeks. Mrs. Harwood spent most of her time taking the boys to the beach, but one day she decided to let them watch a parade of cadets of Kentucky Military Institute. After a while Mrs. Harwood took track of the boys. She knew they couldn't be very far away and as they were wearing bright red baseball caps soon spied them marching along with the cadets, each boy with a stick over his shoulder. It wasn't long before the military police escorted Larry and Jack back to their mother, who sighed with relief at weathering another crisis in the life of a mother.
