Girl Scout Leaders Take Troop Licensing Courses

Realizing it is no small responsibility to take a group of 11 to 14 year old girls off for a weekend and keep them safe, well and happy, leaders of five Southfield Girl Scout troops are busy taking special troop licensing courses.

The program consists of three concentrated four-hour lessons and an overnight stay at Camp Narrin. Those taking the course are Mrs. Frank Fleischer, Mrs. Webster Owen, Mrs. Bill Boyd, Mrs. George MacLachlan, Mrs. Robert Ewart, Mrs. William Commons, Mrs. David Hines, Mrs. Richard Schinsky, Mrs. Linn Hobbs and Mrs. Wayne Diekroon.

With this indoctrination, they hope to be equipped to supervise Scout trips when, for the first time this spring, all intermediate Girl Scout troops of the Southfield district will have an opportunity to go to Camp Narrin for weekend summer vacation starts.

According to Mrs. F. R. Fleischer, neighborhood chairman, one of the greatest problems in getting the qualified first aiders or nurses who must accompany each troop, and she is asking for volunteers, one qualified who would consider going on trips with the girls.

VACATIONERS HOME
At home after a three-week vacation in Florida are the C. E. Wurmuths of Rainbow drive, Mr. and Mrs. Wurmuths drove down and visited in various parts of the state, but especially enjoyed their stay with friends whose home is in the center of a blossoming orange grove.

Miss Carol Serenberg of Glenwood avenue presented a group of her students in a dance recital at Quanton school on March 31. Sponsored by the Quanton PTA, the recital was a demonstration for parents of class routines and steps.

St. Bede's Sanctuary society hopes local residents will pay a red circle around the date, April 24 on their calendar and mark it 7:30 p.m. for that's the date of their first big parish party at Keeping Hall on 5 Mile road east of Greenfield.

The affair will be a supper-card party, with all guides working together to make it a success. Mrs. C. D. Bradburn of Shagbark drive is chairman, with Mrs. Richard Anderson and Mrs. John Olzewski acting as co-chairmen. Reservations can be made through Mrs. Tom Lemman.

Katherine Patricia Minnich will be christened on Easter Sunday at the Shrine of the Little Flower. Second granddaughter of the Milton and Margaret Ringland. Grandparents Dr. and Mrs. Oliver N. Minnich, Sr., will drive up from Lorain, Ohio for the occasion. Godparents will be Carol and Paul Minnich.

Church Meeting

The annual business meeting of the Woman's association of the Community Church will be held April 13 in Fellowship hall. Mrs. J. H. Becker will be in charge of formation of new circles for the coming year.

Circle 1 members will be hostesses for the luncheon, with Mrs. Leonard Pytkas acting as chairman, and devotions by Mrs. Ralph Stephenson.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Gildersleeve and daughters, Nancy Jo and Denny Sue, of Eldorado drive, have returned from two weeks vacation as guests of Mrs. Mable M. Stone of Miami Beach, Fla.

The youngsters enjoyed Mrs. Stone's unusual Chinese pug dog, and a deep sea fishing trip.

A visit was paid to Fort Lauderdale where the Gildersleeves were entertained by the James Murphys. They were luncheon guests of Mrs. Gildersleeve's sister, Miss Polly Holly before she left on a cruise.

Nora Lee Cobb, home on spring vacation from Michigan State college, and Mary Lou Wilson and Bonny McDonald visited the University of Michigan campus Friday. Mary Lou and Bonny are seniors at Southfield High school.

Mrs. Leonard Pytkas and son Jim of Goldengate drive have returned from three weeks spent at the Glades hotel in Kodakton, Fla. They also spent some time as house guests of Captain and Mrs. Charles McCarthy of Orlando, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. George Huth of Goldengate drive entertained a group of youngsters at their home on March 26 in honor of the tenth birthday of their twin grandchildren, Jo Ann and Gerald Collins. Games and refreshments were
