Musical Sets Cello Voice, Piano Event

Piano, vocal, and cello performances will be presented in the April 14 program of the Birmingham Musicals at the Community House.

Featured artists will be Jean Buckberry, pianist, Mary Jane Walker, soprano who will be accompanied by Lois Baker Holmes, and Marjorie Von Staden Bernat, cellist whose accompanist will be Bertha Seifert.

John Buckberry graduated from the Detroit Institute of Musical Art with a bachelor of music degree and studied with Margaret Mannebach, Maurice Dumesnil and Donche Dikova. She has played for Toledo Artists club and in two-piano programs with Helen Hunt. Her number will be "Faschingsschwank aus Wien" by Schumann.

Christ Church, Cranbrook, has chosen songs by Grieg, Sjorgren, LaForge, Gibbs and Warren. A MEMBER OF SIGMA Alpha Jota musical sorority, she has soloed with major oratorio societies and symphonies in the mid-west and Canada. After graduation from Kansas State Teachers college, she taught vocal music in Detroit public schools for several years.

Her accompanist, Lois Holmes, was graduated from University of Michigan music school and studied under Carl Beecher of Northwestern university. Cello numbers by Marorie Bernat, a former student of, and later assistant of, Karl Kiskimith of Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, will be "Sonata in F. Major" by Richard Strauss.

BOTH SHE AND HER accompanist studied in Leipzig, Germany. She under Julius Klengel at the Konservatorium of Leipzig. A member of the Indianapolis Symphony for five years, she is a member of professional music sorority, Mu Phi Epsilon. Bertha Seifert, dean of girls at Kingswood, once accompanied Charles Meusch of the Boston symphony. Arrangements for the day are being handled by Mrs. John C. Toomey, with Mrs. Hilmer Carlson heading the tea committee. The program starts at 2 p.m.

'King Arthur' Presents Awards to Cub Pack 41

Awards were presented at the monthly meeting of Cub Pack 41, Walnut Lake school, on March 31, when Cubs presented their skit, "Knights of the Round Table."

Roderick Menoch, in armor as King Arthur, presided at an authentic-looking round table, and all boys of the pack were dressed in costumes of simulated armor, which they had made in their den during the month.

A skit, "Damsel in Distress," put on by Den I, featured the rescue of a beautiful damsel from a dragon by a gallant knight, all performed before a scenic castle complete with flowers and shrubs. When the dragon had been slain, King Arthur held court, reading the history of the Round Table and the Knight's Code, comparing the latter to the Cub Code.

"King Arthur" then presented awards to the boys, who knelt and were tapped with his sword as they received their earned credits. Receiving the Wolf badge was Scott Harness, Wolf badge with gold arrow, Peter Bunn, Eric Woodward and Steven Coquillard, and silver arrow, John Davis.

In the Wolf rank, Douglas Norland and Gerald Griggs received the silver arrow, Joel Smith and Paul Bishop received the gold arrow, Larry Wells, Robert Smith and Douglas Hamilton the gold and silver arrows, and Phillip Trzos the silver arrow.

Terry Roberts received the Bear badge with a gold and two silver arrows, Ricky Sarlund and John Davis the Bear badge with a gold and silver arrow, and Robert Young, two silver arrows in the Bear rank.

In the Lion rank, John Davis and Carl Hellenberg received a silver arrow, Dan Kozar a gold and silver arrow, and Walter Moins a gold arrow.

Denner stripes were given to Peter Bunn, John Davis, Ricky Menoch and Larry Meyers, and assistant Denner stripes to Tom Kiskimith.

At the district speech contest held recently at Boy Scouts of America, Mt. Clemens, Royal Oak and Birmingham High schools, Beverly Noch of Walnut Lake received first in humorous reading, and Mike Koskinec, of Bloomfield Glens drive placed second in dramatic reading.

MEN'S CLUB TALK
The Walnut Lake Men's club heard from guest speaker Township Supervisor, Hiland M. Thatcher on April 1, during their monthly meeting. Thatcher discussed the election and the budget for the coming year.

During the business meeting, the names of Otto Trzos and Harley Elwood were proposed for membership and accepted. A nominating committee was appointed to select a slate of officers for the year. Reports were heard from the various committees, and members learned that the auction on March 26 was a success.

Performing in the Water Ballet at the Barnum school pool, March 31, April 1 and 2, were Judy Button, Pat McLennan, Sally Hanson and Dawne Karnes. Carole Negri also had a hand in the production.

An open house on April 2, gave friends of the Keith Spriggels an opportunity to look over their home on Kenmore road. The Spriggels, who formerly lived on Poplar Lane, moved to their new house on Kenmore the latter part of January.

Conservation Chairman Is WNFGA's Speaker

Mrs. Charles Davison, chairman of the local conservation committee of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association, Birmingham branch, will be in charge of the program when the group meets at the Community House at 1:30 P.M. on April 11.

Mrs. G. Mennen Williams, wife of the governor of Michigan, is chairman of the state committee on Conservation for the WNFGA and will be the guest speaker of the afternoon.

Michigan has great need for an advanced and enlightened program of conservation of the fine natural resources with which it has been blessed, states Mrs. I. W. Robertson.

The local club aids in furthering the educational program by sending 2 or 3 teachers to Higgins Lake each summer for a 5-day training school conducted by the State Department of Conservation. These participating return with a stimulated interest in the possibilities of public education toward this program.

COMMITTEE MEETS
Committee members of Cub Pack 41 held a meeting on March 29, at the home of Maurice Norland, on Lone Pine road to discuss the coming Scout-o-rama, on April 10, put on by the Clinton Valley council, Ottawa District, Boy Scouts of America, at the Walled Lake Junior High school.

Each pack in this council is competing in the show, and Pack 41 will have the Safety booth. There will be merit badge demonstrations, scoutcraft, two stage shows and refreshments.

In May, in addition to the fish hatchery trip, on the last meeting of the term, motion pictures of the hockey play-offs will be shown, and a Red Wing player will be present in person.

Attending the meeting were Mrs. Otto Trzos, Mrs. Robert Kreuz, Vernon Nickel, John Gibson, Cliff Williams, Roderick Menoch, Tony Kirpluk, Russ Martin, Bob Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. Norland.

On March 28, at the Men's club, they heard a talk by Albert H. Warner, of the Birmingham office, Michigan Bell Telephone company, on "Communications."

The Bloomfield 411 Club tractor maintenance group went on an inspection of the Ferguson Tractor plant on Southfield road on March 25. Boys who took the tour were Sandy Clark, David Granger, Jerry Chalmers, Ralph Hoxie, Larry Myers, Carl and Paul Hellenberg, Peter Sints, Dan and John Nagelvoort and Paul Norland. Accompanying them were Mrs. E. A. Hoxie and leader Jack Shaw.

Leaving this week on the long-awaited trip to Washington, New York and Niagara Falls are Valerie Benway, Yvonne Mealey, Beverly Negri, Sandra Overgard, Beverly Noch, Pat Pelluso, Don Kristola, Don Kipp, Mike Kasnikin and Stewart Schultz.

Planning on being in Washington the same time to enjoy its spring beauty are Mrs. Parker Rockwell and her daughter, Barbara. Starting home on Easter vacation from Wayne University,
