

MRS. LOUIS WRIGHT GNAM

Lace, Silk Form Gown As Jan Stayton Weds

Wearing a gown of silk mouseline over white satin, Janice Carol Stayton became the bride of Louis Wright Gnam in an evening ceremony Saturday. The Rev. W. Glen Harris read the candlelight rites at 7:30 p.m. in the First Presbyterian church.

The bridal gown of mouseline was applied with Alencon lace on the bodice and front of the skirt. It featured long fitted sleeves, a deep square neck and a bouffant skirt extending into a chapel-length train. The fingertip veil consisted of two tiers of silk illusion attached to a cap of matching Alencon lace, she carried Amazon lilies and Stephanotis.

Janice is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Stayton of Stafford drive. Her husband's parents are the L. M. Gnam of Carroll, Iowa.

COMING from Tulsa, Okla., was Mrs. Harry E. Wheeler to act as her sister's matron of honor. She wore a pink tulle gown with an empire waist and a full skirt. The sleeveless bodice, which featured diagonal tulle, was topped with a tiny jacket of matching tulle with bracelet length sleeves. Her hat was a tiny wreath of pink velvet leaves with a circular maline veil. She carried a colonial bouquet of violets, anemones and pink stephanotis.

Cynthia Gnam of Sioux City, Iowa, and Rosalie Gnam of Carroll, Iowa, sisters of the groom, were bridesmaids. They wore gowns identical to the matron's. Flower girl, Sherry Aylward of

Nurmes of Carey Lane Back From Skiing at Sun Valley

Mr. and Mrs. Eino Nurme, Carey Lane, returned Saturday from an exciting trip to Sun Valley.

The Nurmes and three other couples, the Jack Emmetta, Leroy Dahlberg, and Robert Fife, all of the Birmingham area, accompanied by ski instructor General Monday and his wife, the former Ais Chubbok of Bloomfield Hills, made up the party. Mrs. Monday is also a ski instructor.

The group stayed at Challenger Inn and for nine days enjoyed perfect skiing. They report even mastering the runs on Baldy Mountain—the highest of the surrounding peaks.

During their stay, they saw the Hartman Cup races run with challengers from Austria, Germany, Switzerland and America. Among the Sun Valley guests was Stein Ericson, Norwegian ski champion, who instructed last winter at Boyce mountain where many of our local skiers vacationed. They will be interested to know that Ericson broke his leg while skiing at Sun Valley.

The Nurmes and their group took 25 reels of movies, which they are putting together in story form; they also took a great number of 3-1/2 pictures.

Evenings they spent enjoying the entertainment featured at the resort. One dinner they recall as particularly well held at the Inn, with cheese fondue, served in individual chafing dishes and lighted at the table. With this they had wine brought to the table in a "wine pump", a container about three feet high from which the wine is pumped at the table.

This same group plans to go abroad next year and travel in Europe for five weeks, skiing in Austria, Switzerland, and Italy and sightseeing in many other countries.

Eric Everson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Everson, Sberingham, celebrated his fifth birthday March 29. Several of his friends came for lunch and a party featuring an Easter egg hunt, fish pond and other games and prizes.

GARDEN CLUB
The Wing Lake Garden club has invited boys of the area to enter the Bird House contest being sponsored by the club. It is to be judged May 1 at the lake front and prizes will be awarded.

Boys from 8 to 14 are eligible to enter with bird houses they have made. Anyone interested may contact Mrs. Alfred Kasemeyer for folders showing all kinds of bird house designs.

Guests of Mrs. Tom Stewart had a beautiful spring day for luncheon at Forest Lake country club last week. Among them were Mrs. Fred Ball, Wing Lake and Mrs. Larry LeGros, Thurber road. Lunch, in the dining room overlooking picturesque Forest Lake, followed cocktails in the lounge.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Homeric, Carey Lane, returned last week from two weeks in Mexico. Their first week, at the De Pasca in Acapulco, they spent their time sight-seeing, shopping and enjoying the surrounding mountain scenery. Homeric took a deep-sea fishing cruise and found the landing of a sail fish a great thrill.

From Acapulco they went to Mexico City where they were impressed with the buildings of University City done in mosaics in striking designs. The last five days were spent visiting friends on their Arizona ranch near Tucson.

On April 2, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Elder, Walnut Lake road, attended a farewell party in Dearborn given for Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kandt of Dearborn, who are leaving to make their home in San Diego.

Pat Casson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Verne Casson, Werrington road, was 11 years old on April 3. Following her family birthday luncheon with guest, Paul Kasemeyer, Pat, her sister June, and Paul attended the movie, "A Star is Born."

Both girls, graduates of King's County hospital, Brooklyn, N.Y., state their duties as nurses at the Veterans hospital at Ann Arbor this week.

A relaxing vacation for a week was recently enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Juetz, Walnut Lake road, at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va. They stayed at the historical Greenbrier, built near the old trail blazed by Daniel Boone. The Juetz family particularly enjoyed a tour of the hotel pointing out its historical background.
