

Movie Portrays Road Problems

As part of its contribution toward a nation-wide better roads program, General Motors is offering a motion picture pointing up current highway problems and suggesting possible action to alleviate the conditions.

Prints are available for use by any group, free of charge, from General Motors' film libraries in Detroit, New York and San Francisco. More than 100,000 persons have viewed the film since it was introduced.

Cleaners Cleaned

They've broke into the Crescent Carpet Cleaning Co., 123 California, Royal Oak, early Wednesday and took about $25 in cash from office drawers. Entry was made through a rear window, employees told police.

The picture treats with equal clarity the need for better farm-
