MARY Ann Rainey wore white silk taffeta when she spoke her vows with Alfred J. Rosborough, Jr., at afternoon rites at Christ Church on Saturday.

Mary Ann Rainey Wed At Christ Church

Mary Ann Rainey became the bride of Alfred James Rosborough, Jr., in afternoon ceremonies at the Christ Church Cranbrook Saturday.

The Rev. Perry Williams performed the 4 p.m. ceremony.

Mary Ann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Pickering Rainey, 1047 Henrietta, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred James Rosborough, 642 Pilgrim, Birmingham.

The BRIDAL GOWN of white silk taffeta was fashioned with an elongated, fitted bodice buttoned down the back and baton neckline. The cap sleeves were edged with embroidered alençon lace and the full skirt was gathered at the bustle and fell into a full chapel train.

THE GROOM'S SISTER, Barbara Rosborough, wore the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Charles F. Gatz, Jr., Mary Elizabeth Smith, Mrs. James S. McCall and Mrs. Donald E. Rogers.

All attendants wore full-skirted Princess-style dresses of pink pique with necklines edged in pink lace. The maid of honor carried a crescent cascade of asters in lavender, pink and purple shades, centered by pink. Her pink headband was trimmed with lavender asters.

BRIDESMAIDS CARRIED similar bouquets, centered by purple asters. Their pink headbands were trimmed with pink asters.

Best man was Peter Rosborough, the groom's brother. Seating the guests were Roger Smith, the bride's cousin, Steve Campbell, Bill Carlisle, George Spilane and Peter Hoffman.

The bride's mother wore a champagne lace dress with brown accessories. The groom's mother wore a blue lace dress with purple orchid corsage.

On their return they will make their home at 752 Graefeld court, Birmingham.

One of town guests was Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Gaudin, Oklawaha, Fla. Mr. and Mrs. P. Z. Horton, Peoria, Ill., Mrs. G. O. Smith, Mobile, Ill.

Birmingham has an interest in the Saline Mill theater at Saline this year, with two of its active members from this area.

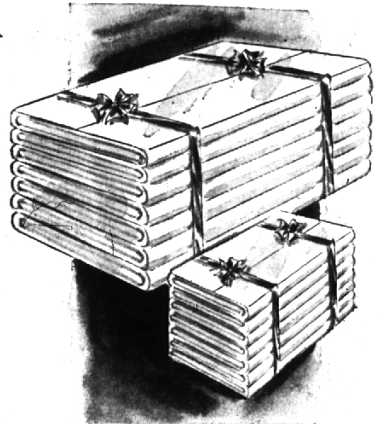

Margaret Booth, a native of Birmingham, is supervisor of apprentices there. Additional duties include buying food supplies and cooking for the company. She will start teaching in Detroit's DeWey high school's English department this fall.

Second from the area is Barbara Hamel, founder and producer of the group, who is a dramatics and speech teacher at Kingswood.
