SURROUNDED BY the old hats which have made up her Woodward shop window display, Mrs. Nan Degen says she's glad she doesn't have to wear them. Made generously, the old time hats are heavy and cumbersome, as well as hot. The bonnet she holds is more than a hundred years old and, no doubt, had many an envious glance sent its way when it was startling new. Hats were loaned to Mrs. Degen from a Birmingham woman's collection. (Eccentric Photo)

Christ Childers Have Luncheon

The Birmingham group of the Christ Child Society played host to the Detroit group at the annual summer meeting held at a luncheon Wednesday at the Bloomfield Hills Country club.

The joint meeting had a twofold purpose, to acquaint probationers with members and to acquaint members of the two groups.

Mrs. John P. O'Hara, Jr., entertained members of the Birmingham board Aug. 3 to complete final plans for the meeting.

A winter carnival in November is being planned by the group.

Library Will Close Summer Story Hour

The final story hour in the current series will be held at Baldwin library Tuesday, Aug. 16.

Miss Kathleen Picket said the new fall and winter series, scheduled for Saturday mornings, will begin shortly after the opening of school.

At the Tuesday hour she will read "The Frog Prince" and "Doctor and Detective, Too." "Apamiondas and His Aunt" will be requested for the group by popular request.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.
