Cranbrook Awards Four Scholarships

CRANBROOK — Four scholarships, valued at $1220 each, have been awarded by Cranbrook Academy of Art to a Canadian, an Australian and two U.S. residents.

Miss Lois M. Eberington, recipient of the Ellen Scripps Booth Scholarship, is prominent in Toronto as proprietor of an arts store and as a crafts teacher in several schools. She has also executed metalwork commissions for various public buildings and churches.

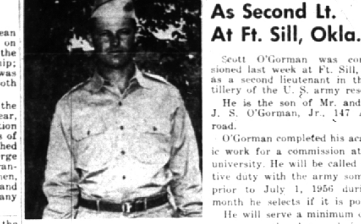

Australian Peter S. Staughton, winner of three major awards in Melbourne for outstanding architectural work, and now a scholarship student at the British School in Rome, has been granted the Elsie Saarnen Scholarship.

The scholarships, which cover the Academy's 1952-53 school year, were granted after consideration of applications from many parts of the world. They were established in memory of Mr. and Mrs. George G. Booth, founders of the six Cranbrook schools; Elsie Saarnen, first head of the Academy; and James Scripps Booth, for many years an Academy trustee.
