

Wing Lake - Foxcroft

VIRGINIA COLE MA 6-3585

Three Families Welcomed As New Neighbors in Area

Three families are being welcomed as newcomers in this area, two in Wing Lake and one in Foxcroft.

Formerly from Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Suzan and their two sons, Mike, Jr., 2, and three-month-old Mark, moved last week to their new home on Thurber road.

A graduate of Ohio State university, Suzan is district sales manager with Natvar corporation. He is a former president in Cleveland of Counter Intelligence corps, and is looking forward to meeting members of the group located here.

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Hannan, moved to their new home on Sunningdale road from North Adams road in Birmingham.

The Hannans have a son, Jerry, and a daughter, Mrs. John Weizan, both living in Palo Alto, California. They are expecting a visit from their daughter and her husband, Dr. John Weizan, soon.

Wife golf as his hobby, Hannan is a representative of Lloyd Mfg. Co.

The Foxcroft newcomers are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ramsey, who came here about a month ago from Barrington, Ill.

The Ramseys, who live on Meadows way, have two daughters, Susan, 6, and Lisa, 3. Ramsey is an engineer with Jervis, B. Webb Company Co.

FOX-CROFT WNEF

Foxcroft WNEF reminds members of the garden party to be held at the Kelllogg Center, East Lansing on Aug. 17.

Mrs. Richard Carter, who is taking reservations, says they must be in by Friday, Aug. 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stecker, Wing Lake road, spent last week at Osota on a brief vacation geared to relaxation.

Monday evening the Steckers, with Stecker's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Long of Maracaibo, Venezuela, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Allman, Bloomfield Village.

For several weekends, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Phillip, Clarendon road, have entertained groups of guests for an dinner and swimming at their lakeside home. The latest of these groups included Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Joslin, Lakeside; Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Hart, Bloomfield Hills; Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKinley, Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tuller of Grosse Pointe.

Karen and Joan Carter, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Carter, Worthington road, leave tomorrow for two weeks with their grandparents at Forest, Ont., on Lake Huron.

Their parents will drive them and going along as their weekend guest will be Wendy Sanderson, Thurber road.

On a recent week's vacation, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Willis of Worthington road were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Beachley of Bayfield, Ont.

Mrs. Beachley returned with Mrs. Willis and visited a few days before continuing on to Florida, and recent guests of the Willises were Dr. and Mrs. John Fleming and Mrs. Frank Tuller of Grosse Pointe.

HOST MUSICALS

A Sunday musicale followed

FOR SALE

Modern, fluorescent tubular fixtures for office or store purposes. For sale—second hand. 15 units. 4 tubes—4 feet long.

Inspect at 239 South Woodward.

TRUE CUSTOM LIVING PLUS PRIVATE FISHING AND SWIMMING!

A spacious ranch home in magnificent, rolling Meadowlake Farms, where superb fishing and swimming is just over the hill at your own private lake—yet five minutes from downtown Birmingham.

Custom-crafted last year of the finest materials available, this home boasts such lavish features as Thermopane windows throughout, louvered closet doors, all Norman brick exterior, an asphalt road, built-in fireplace, a 20-foot paneled activities room with fireplace and built-in bar, three month bedrooms, luxury kitchen, attached 21' car plastered garage. Carpeting and draperies included.

This is your opportunity for year-round resort living in a rigidly-restricted neighborhood of 100% custom-built ranch homes—an exclusive subdivision where property values are constantly rising. This is one of the few homes likely to be sold here for as little as $38,300.

6650 Halyard Road
By appointment — MAYfair 6-2853

West Beverly

Anna McCleary MI 6-4342

Pam Jones Hosts Lawn Party For Local Younger Crowd

Pam Jones, daughter of the Henry Joneses of Bedford road, was hostess the evening of July 31 at a welcome party honoring a new neighbor, Richard Ganthion of North-street.

The party was held on the Jones' lawn and consisted of swimming, card, friends from Detroit, where Pam and her father live, came to help celebrate.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wesley, who live on Warwick, entertained members of their dinner club recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Ritz of 1816 Riverside drive, hosted a barbecue party for 18 on their lawn Saturday night.

Present at the affair were Mrs. and Mrs. Arthur Lane of Beverly, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Canfield of Wellesly, Mr. and Mrs. Grant of Winthrop and the Harold Hills of Detroit.

This was the magic number on the evening of July 31 when Mrs. Gordon Gant gave a party to celebrate her husband's 50th birthday. It was a lawn party, out of doors, in spite of the weather and 18 of the

We Heard It Said By:

MRS. ED CARROLL, 625 Thruway, Wing Lake. "Even though I always will be my future home, I shall continue to take The Economist so that I can read about my friends. I have loved Birmingham, and I always will."

Great animal lover, the Sandersons were thrilled in their trip to see mountain sheep, buffalo, elk, deer, bear and moose. One day their guide had them hide in a tree thicket, while he went on ahead to rustle up some wild life, and succeeded in locating a whole herd of elk. There were about 45 animals in the herd including several young ones. The Sandersons considered this sight one of the highlights of their trip.

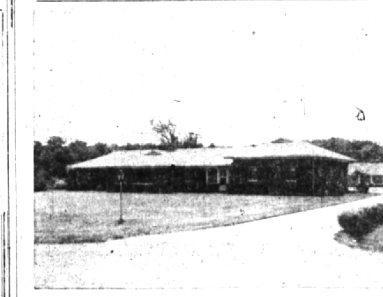

CHARM and SIMPLICITY—BRIGHT and CHEERFUL

Walk to Quanton and Holy Name Schools

FEATURING—On one of the best streets in Birmingham—

- Four roomy Bedrooms—
- Two baths plus powder room
- Beautiful sunroom—And a library, too
- Interesting, attractive interior—Some carpeting
- Masonry walls —
- Cool in summer, warm in winter

MOST FOR THE MONEY! $31,500

ALL YOU'VE EVER DREAMED OF!

The spare you need, arranged so that you can make the most of it.

Porch and terrace close at hand help make summer entertaining a pleasure

First floor utility room and laundry will save you many steps

The better than 20' living room with a fireplace gives it an air of dignity

Rate in a ranch—Three Good Bedrooms

Built in 1953, the house is in excellent condition. It lies within the Birmingham School district on a court street which eliminates all traffic problems. 105' x 250' completely landscaped site adds spaciousness and tranquility to this peak of perfection. Yes, all you've ever dreamed of, and more, too, in this ranch home.

278 South Woodward
Midwest 4-6300

There were 10 guests, all from Detroit, with the exception of the H. G. Friedberg, neighbors on Warwick.

NORTHERN HOLIDAY

After two weeks at their cottage on Lake Charles, the Vincent Madisons and their children are home again. They were at Charlevoix for the town's Venetian Night celebrations, featuring an Italian chief and his squad.

The Madison children, Stanley, Gary, Nancy and Gayle, were thrilled at the opportunity to observe real Indians, and Gayle was chosen to have her picture taken with them. The Indians are care takers at the museum at Harbor Springs.

While in the north, the Madisons were entertained at the summer home of an uncle, H. A. Craig.

The Philip Lewises left Sunday for their home in Western Springs, Ill., after spending a week at houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Burgess of Beauford road.

265 PILGRIM ROAD

(Owner moving to Oklahoma)

Open Every Day and Evening

For next three months

Attractive three-bedroom having 3 bedrooms and 2 1/2 bathrooms, living room with fireplace and screened porch. Kitchen has fan over stove, disposal, dishwasher and breakfast nook. There is an extra room with closet and next to the laundry which can all be used as an emergency bedroom, library or dining room. There is a recreation room. Also gas hot water and oil A/C heat, ventilating fan, 2 car garage, laundry and permanent aluminum screens and storm. Lot 30 x 120 beautiful landscaped, best neighborhood, near Maple Hill and Quanton road. Price, $4,500.

JOHN KNECHT
Realtor

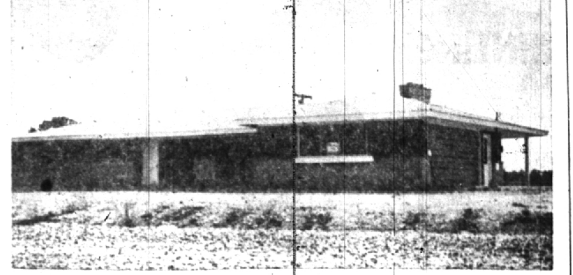

1692 S. Woodward
MI 4-4600

Evenings MI 4-7291

On July 31 Mrs. David Wesley returned from Japan. Mrs. Paula and her daughter, Barbara, enter Allen, Michigan, and Mr. and Mrs. returning to their homes at the H. G. Friedberg, neighbors on Warwick.

The Wesleys' guests will all be joined a group from Cranbrook, Hilton U and Anne Chapman, all close of the summer session of the Cranbrook Art Academy.

Builder Will Take Your House In Trade

High on a hill, luxurious 3 bedroom ranch in this exclusive community of fine homes, finished with exquisite appointments, 2 full baths, large living room, oak paneled activities room with oak beamed ceiling, 21' car garage, large covered terrace with barbecue, Mahogany cupboards in kitchen, Dishwasher, built in oven and range, built in refrigerator and freezer. Music system through house. The appealing charm of this fine custom home will please any person owning a home complete in every detail. $32,500.00 with terms to suit.

CHARLES J. VAN HORN

361 N. Woodward
Birmingham, Mich.

MI 6-2400
JO 4-5644

HARD TO TOP THIS SELECTION

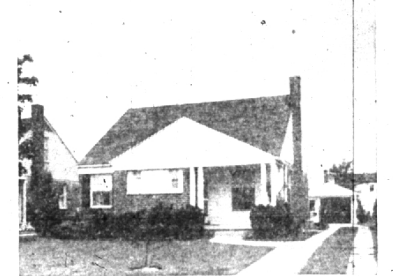

Just a short walk to churches, schools, and shops. Sounds like you're in the city, doesn't it? Really you're not! In fact, you're in one of the finest of all fine, strictly suburban neighborhoods. The warmth and character of this neighborhood are definitely reflected in this home. For only one of this type could fit into these surroundings.

Three bedrooms, plus a sewing room

One and one-half car garage, which gives you lots of space for those "extra" things

16' plus summer porch. Cyclone fence and a set of children's swings make the back yard complete. Also beautiful carpeting.

All this besides the fact that every particle of it is in excellent condition. What more could you ask for?

One and one-half car garage, which gives you lots of space for those "extra" things

16' plus summer porch. Cyclone fence and a set of children's swings make the back yard complete. Also beautiful carpeting.

All this besides the fact that every particle of it is in excellent condition. What more could you ask for?

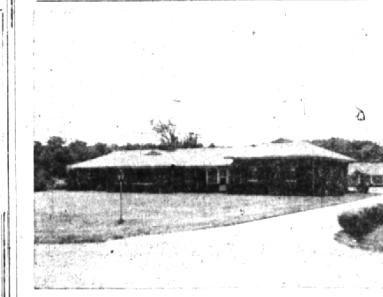

IMPORTANT! WHO BUILT IT!

This fine Colonial was built in 1950 by Scott Hersey, after 30 years of building homes in Quanton Lake Estates. Integrity of construction and livability evident throughout the house. Owner and builder of this house had one humble thought in common. "No matter how well we build, it still will not be good enough."

You will find completeness of living inside

- Two fireplaces
- Separate dining room, library
- First floor tiled powder room
- Breakfast nook. Glassed-in porch
- Three bedrooms, bath and laundry up.

Maximum closet and storage space. All dimensions king size. See this exceptional value today — $31,900.

This one and a half story home is but two years old, and has both a library and an enclosed porch, besides a spacious living room, separate dining room, completely modern kitchen.

Large master bedroom on the first floor.

Two more bedrooms are on the second.

Two baths, one up, one down—enclosed in and fixtures.

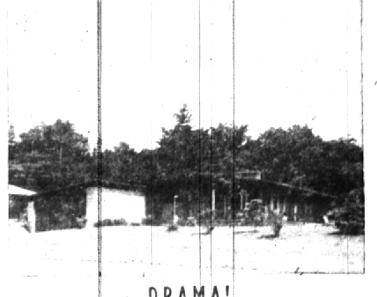

Located near the Birmingham Golf Club this residence offers spacious accommodations for its price—$11,600

Upkeep is simple — housekeeping is a breeze. Convenient to schools, transportation and shopping.

Elastic open planning provides amazing entertaining area, plus a real artist's studio with proper lighting and section (could be an extra bedroom)

Fine design makes excellent and interesting use of materials and insures both comfort and beauty.

DRAMA!

OUTSIDE

INSIDE

VIEW!

Watt, Manuel & Snyder, Inc.
Realtors

Birmingham, Michigan
Jordan 6-2323