Harold Chalk Family Plan Georgian Bay Camping Trip

Mrs. Harold J. Chalk of Big Beaver road, Bloomfield township, entertained at a garden party yesterday honoring her nieces, Mrs. Donald Natcarrow, Mrs. Jack Natcarrow and Mrs. James Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. James Jones will be looking forward to joining the ranks of newcomers to this area next week when they move into their new home on Chalk road.

This Saturday, the Chalks leave for a two-weeks camping trip in Georgian Bay. Julian and David lived home this week for a five weeks vacation, her first since she entered college two years ago. She is a liberal arts and nursing education student at Skidmore college, and is finishing her sophomore year at the New York University and Bellevue Medical Center.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Meyrick returned to their Adams road home last Friday after spending two weeks fishing in Canada. At Bowmanville, on Lake Ontario, they were joined by Mrs. Meyrick's niece and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Pate, and their children, Beverly and Melaine.

The Meyricks spent the last week of their Canadian vacation at Lake Harst resort on Chandon Lake.

This September, Mrs. Meyrick will open her nursery school for its 19th year. She is busy now with preparations for the tea she gives each year for mothers of the crays and building block set who will be enrolled in her school this fall.

WEEKEND CANOE TRIP
Earlier this summer the Frederick Hammons family of Charing Cross road enjoyed their first canoe trip down the AuSable river.

Weekend before last, Mr. and Mrs. Hammond invited Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pierce of Metamora and Dr. and Mrs. John Hubert of Lone Pine road to join them for a weekend at Hidden Valley. On Saturday the three couples canoed down the river, that night drove back to Hidden Valley, returning home Sunday.

Nanette Hammond will leave the early part of September for Boulder, Colo., where she will be a sophomore at the University of Colorado this fall.

Frederick, "Fritz" Hammond, is majoring in education at the University of Detroit this year where she will be a senior.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard D. Ernst, Vickie, 5, and Dege, 1, were houseguests since the last of July at the Westchester country, N. Y., home of Mrs. Ernst's parents, the A. S. Haugans, who were Birmingham residents until four years ago at which time they moved to New York state.

Now that the Ernsts are back home at 1184 Orchard Hill drive, Hickory Heights, they are devoting all spare time to the construction of their new patio. They hope to celebrate its completion next month with a patio supper for members of their supper club.

HOME FROM TORONTO
The Duncan E. McCallivays of Pine Hill drive returned the first week of August from two weeks vacation in Toronto. Last week their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John R. McCann and children, Beth, John, Marie and Bob, arrived from Appleton, Wis., to spend two weeks.

This past weekend Mr. and Mrs. Jack Enley, of St. Thomas, Ont., arrived and are also houseguests at the McCallivay home.

Barbara Radenberg of Lathrup Village spent week before last with her sister, Mrs. Robert R. Hamly of 1327 Meadows lane court, Bloomfield township.
