Bring Home the BACON...

Do you "bring home the bacon" in the form of a regular pay envelope or check? Make sure that you keep a healthy slice of it for the future benefit for your family and yourself. Best "home" for the part of your "bacon" that you aim to hold onto is in your savings account, where compound dividends can add steadily to its size. Decide how much you can add steadily to its size. Decide how much you can reasonably expect to save each week. Then faithfully place that amount in your account, first thing every payday!

MRS. GERALD NEIL MOODY

Patricia McInnes Wed In Double-ring Rites

Patricia Ann McInnes became the bride of Gerald Neil Moody in noon services Saturday at the Shrine of the Little Flower.

The Rev. Charles E. Coughlin performed the double-ring ceremony before 200 guests.

Patricia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. McInnes, 1980 Brookside drive, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Johnston, 21 Lester court, Pontiac.

accessories. She wore a white orchid corsage. The groom's mother wore a dress of mauve lace over taffeta with white accessories and Mrs. Carlton Johnston, 21 Lester court, Pontiac.

THE BRIDAL GOWN was fashioned with a beaute of white lace with scallops of the lace trimming the scoop neckline. It had long lace sleeves and the skirt was styled in a lace apron effect over satin. White illusion net fashioned the entire skirt.

A jeweled bonnet headpiece held the fingertip veil. The bridal bouquet was white roses centered with a white orchid.

MRS. DAVID SHARKEY of Royal Oak was the matron of honor. She wore a dress of coral-flower blue taffeta with gold accessories and headpiece and carried a bouquet of bronze baby mums.

Bridesmaid was Arlene Verville of Berkeley and junior bridesmaid was Eileen Inak of Detroit. Both wore gold taffeta dresses, gold shoes and headpieces and carried rust baby-mum bouquets.

The best man was the bride's brother, Robert J. Fitzgibbon of Birmingham. Seating the guests were the groom's brother, Ross Moody of Pontiac, and George Pentak of Pontiac.

The bride's mother wore a French blue shantung suit with a matching jeweled hat and navy

Jean Marson Is Bound for Europe

Jean Marson is leaving August 24 for Europe, taking a solitary trip with a few meetings with relatives or college friends.

When her ship, a student boat, docks at LeHavre, she'll be met by a young couple who were friends before her graduation from Purdue in May, 1954. They'll be taking a three-week tour of Europe.

She hopes to see a trio of Birmingham area girls, Mary Richards, Susan Bell and Sally Rosenberg, who are driving their own car about the continent.

SHE HAD EXPECTED to purchase their car before they return to the States, but her own trip will be overlapping theirs now that she has set her sailing time up over a month.

Planning to remain until early December, Miss Marson, who has been employed nearly a year at Goez Associates on Hunter boulevard, will be studying how cities are being planned in Europe.

Having had city planning studies at Purdue and done drafting for the local firm, she is contemplating returning to school after her trip.

parents for 100 guests from 1 to 6 p.m.

When the couple left for a motor trip to northern Michigan and Wisconsin, the bride had changed into an avocado shantung suit with white accessories and was wearing the orchid corsage from her bouquet.

The couple will make their home at 60 Washington street in Pontiac.

KLUGE LEUTE

This is the German phrase far smart people. Today many Kluge Leute realize the need of a second language — business, travel and culture are becoming so international in character. Here at Berlitz, we'd say that 10 years from now if you don't know a second language you'll find it difficult to get ahead in business. You can learn the basic elements of a new language in a few weeks. It's quick, easy, very pleasant. Open weekdays 9:30-3:30. Enroll now. If you speak English you can speak any language.
