

MRS. C. Richard Lewis wore Chantilly lace and tulle in a fitted basque gown for her wedding on Aug. 6 in Congregational church here. Her skirt was of lace with tulle dust ruffle over taffeta. She carried white roses, centered with a white orchid.

Vaughan School Gets Renovation

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — First step of the $500,000 bond issue accepted by the voters last month has begun constructively with the renovation of Vaughan school.

Visiting Parents In Bloomfield Home

Mrs. Morgan DeKalb and her two daughters, Betsy, 5, and Debra, 1, have been the guests for ten days of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Sheldrick on Hills drive, Bloomfield township. She will return to her Melbourne, Fla., home on August 27.

Dresden Figurine Inspires Hazel Plumb's Bridal Gown

Like a white Dresden figurine, Hazel Jean Plumb walked to the front of Congregational church to exchange wedding vows with C. Richard Lewis on Aug. 6.

Carrying roses and an orchid, the bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Plumb of 429 Rottamat Hill, Birmingham, wore a lace and tulle gown.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Bernadine Lewis of 1925 Monica, Southfield township, and is a recent graduate of the Army's radar school, Stationed in Arizona. He will complete his service until October 19, 1956, while his bride remains with her parents. She is a librarian at the Mason school in Detroit.

Following the wedding, the couple took a wedding trip to northern Michigan for travel, the bride wore a white tulle, figured dress.

The wedding, a double-ring ceremony, was officiated by the Rev. Robert Downey, before 175 guests. Attending the bride was her sister, Mrs. W. R. Mitchell, of Bloomington, Ind., who wore a crystalline halberga gown with the jacket, both of turquoise. Bridesmaid, in a similarly-styled gown of tea rose, was Mrs. Raymond E. Mills of Highland Park, and both wore Juliet caps.

BEST MAN was Raymond Mills, and usher was William Shafferly of Royal Oak and William H. Plumb.

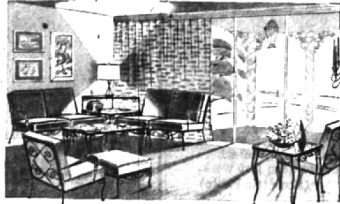

For the ceremony and the reception in the church parlors, the bride's mother wore a pale blue nylon gown with white accessories and variations, while the bridegroom's mother chose a pale blue gown with pink accessories and variations.

Out-of-town guests included the H. S. Pillsbury of Jackson, the W. B. Mitchell of Bloomington, and Dr. and Mrs. G. A. DeLano of Grosse Pointe Farms.

Household goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.
