Smiles of Welcome Given To Three New Families

Dr. R. N. Elliott and family have recently moved into their new home at 1722 Graefield road. Formerly stationed at Fort Dix, N. J., Dr. Elliott is now psychiatrist at the Pontiac State hospital.

An alumna of Wayne Medical school, Mrs. Elliott is a high enthusiast. Mrs. Elliott also attended Wayne University and enjoys painting. Native Detroiters, the Elliotts' children are seven-year-old Laurel, five-year-old Bobby,

New residents at 738 are Mr. and Mrs. William F. Graefen and their 20-month-old son Gary. Graefen is a copy writer for Campbell-Ewald advertising agency, attended the University of Michigan and enjoys golf and swimming. Mrs. Graefen is an alumna of the University of Illinois and is a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta society. The Graefens formerly lived in Des Plaines, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete S. Hoffman are busy getting settled in their new home at 633 Graefield court. Having from Hanover, N. H., Hoffman is in television research for Campbell-Ewald. He attended Fountain Valley college and Dartmouth. Skiing is his hobby. Mrs. Hoffman is an alumna of Western College for Women and also likes to ski. Their son is four-month-old William Stroth.

WEEKEND GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne F. Chapman recently entertained weekend houseguests at their Graefield road home. They were Mrs. Chapman's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Arends, and their children, Linda, Beverly, and Mary of Kewanee, Iowa.

Weekend houseguests at the J. T. Duffy's were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wagner of Columbus, Ohio. Saturday a luncheon was given in their honor at the Duffy's Graefield court home, then dinner at Northwood Inn. Sunday morning the Richard Pippins of Graefield court served breakfast to complete the weekend.

The Thomas Mansson family and three children, of Chicago, Ill., were the houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Obey. The families camped out one week at Brighton, and with the Obeyes' three children a lot of cooking was necessary. On their way home a Frank's mouth dinner ended their happy vacation.

The Obeyes had just recently returned from a week's vacation in Chicago where they were the guests of Mrs. Obey's mother, Mrs. Odella Obey and her brother, John Lelonek.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Lovitt and son Jack are now vacationing in Danbury, Conn. They will be the houseguests of Mrs. Lovitt's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nohlett. They plan to vacation two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Marker gave a birthday party August 11 in honor of their five-year-old son Chris. A birthday luncheon was served in the back yard with all the trimmings. Highlight of the party was a large lacy Crockett cake and hats and prizes for all the guests.

Guests included Pam Irvin, Tess and Darke Dinkler, Billy Green, Douglas Miller of Birmingham, Graefelders Cathy Ohmer, George and Sarah Cobb, Kelly Fife. The Marker's are former Graefelders, but are now settled in their new home in the Rose Section.
