Northern, Southern Vacation Spots Draw Scolaro Family

The Jack Scolaros have been on the go since the early part of July when they enjoyed a week's holiday at the Greenbrier hotel at White Sulphur Springs, Va.

They came home just long enough to change suitcases and take off for Potomacy where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Norton at the Nortons' summer home.

Home again for a few days, they headed for Lake Charlevoix to pick up their children Toni and Jean, who have been at Camp Ta-Mena, before spending the weekend at Hidden Valley, near Osage.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Simon have visited them for two weeks, at their home on Old Trail road, their on-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jolliss, and the Jolliss children Bradley and Clifford, here from Wooster, Ohio.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Calvert Thomas during July and part of August was his mother, Mrs. Nelson Thomas of Baltimore, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. William Fox of Franklin Park drive, have at their house guests for two weeks Mr. and Mrs. Tom James and Mr. and Mrs. William James and their daughter Irene, all arriving from Caselle.

Old Acquaintances Renewed At High School Class Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Danielson of Beverly road recently returned from a trip including several states with points of interest, and filled with memories they will not soon forget.

Crossing Michigan, they stopped first for a short visit with relatives in Ludington, and then went into Wisconsin where they stayed awhile in Manitowish and later continued north to Marinette. Retracing their course, they visited relatives in Stephenson, Mich., and finally wound up by returning to Ludington, their first stop.

This was the high spot of their vacation for they managed to arrive at the time of the Ludington centennial celebration.

Their high school class reunion, and also that of the entire high school, was held at this time, and as over 1200 came back for the event, the Danielsons met friends they had not seen for many years.

HAVE YOU MET?
Mr. and Mrs. J. Fraser Cocks who came here from Ann Arbor a short time ago and are now living at 1946 Warwick road? They have two sons, Fred H. 14, and Geoffrey, 7. Mr. Fraser is controller of the L. A. Young Spring & Wire corporation. They were connected with the Presbyterian church in their former home.

Mr. and Mrs. Linsmeyer of Beverly road have been enjoying a vacation at Indian Trail lodge near Traverse City. Before going on their vacation they had as guests:

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Wahl of Riverside are back for a 10-day visit with Mrs. Wahl's sister, Miss Marie Stricker, in Buffalo, Hoating and other summer amusements made the time pass rapidly among relatives in the neighboring state.

Toronto last Monday.

Jerilyn Green, daughter of the Don Greens of Nottingham road, is home after an eight-week sojourn at Chippewa Trail camp at Elk Lake.

Visiting friends and relatives in Chicago and vicinity this week are Mrs. George Spencer and her daughters Pat and Isabelle, of Grandingham road, and her mother, Mrs. Jean Brown of Detroit.

Son Michael is on a two-week tour in Canada, visiting Montreal and Quebec, and the northeastern states with his grandmother, Mrs. Irene Spencer of Detroit.

HOME AGAIN
The Harold Newhousers, with their daughters Cheryl and Charlene, have returned to their home on Romney way after vacationing for two weeks at Horicon, near Osage.

ENTERTAIN VISITORS
Mr. and Mrs. James Robbins, Franklin road, were hosts last weekend to houseguests Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Gottschalk, of Fremont, Ohio. They entertained 12 guests from Detroit at cocktails and a dinner honoring their visitors. The Robbins will spend this weekend at Lexington, stopping at the Chateau.

Dr. and Mrs. Lynn Hershey and their five children are back in their place on Ramble road after a week 14 Mile road are fortunate in having a swimmer cottage close enough that they can fit back and forth at will during the summer season. Mrs. Prucha and son Skip spent just week at home and then with Mr. Prucha returned to Harsen's Island for the weekend. Two boys are more fun than one so Skip had with him his friend, Jim Butler, whose home is in Mount Pleasant, Mich.

It's very quiet around the house at 1910 Warwick with Carol away, so Mr. and Mrs. Herman Friedman paid their usual delight for a visit at "The House on the Hill," a camp for girls at Brighton. Leslie Beverages went along to see her friend, Carol, and it was a gala day for the girls, being together and going out to dinner with the Friedmans. Carol will be coming home August 20.

EXCHANGE VISITS
What is better than exchanging visits when you're 12 years old? For 10 days Mary Anne Stone of Bedford has been visiting her friend, Nancy Craig, who lives in Toledo, La. Last weekend Nancy's parents brought Mary Anne home and left Nancy here for a similar length of time.
