New England Clambake Held At Lone Pine Village Home

When the Barclay Mores of Lone Pine Village sighed with nostalgia, "Oh, for those good old clambakes we had back east—" their neighbors, the Frank Reschkes said, "We'll have one."

Sunday afternoon big kettles of steamed clams, pans of lobsters, and corn on the cob were done up in real New England style. There were dips in the Reschke pool, and badminton. Mr. and Mrs. James Griffith were there, so were the Bill Broaches and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Warren. Recent houseguests at the Reschke home were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Norris of San Antonio, Texas.

VISIT QUEBEC

The splendor of the candlelight hillside procession of St. Anne de Beaupre, Quebec, was an inspiring sight for the Anthony Rossi family of Harzdale.

The Rossis, including Mrs. Rossi's mother, Mrs. D. Carnacchi, made a horse-and-buggy tour of Quebec city and Montreal and visited the famed Casa Loma castle at Toronto.

Mrs. Lawrence Angevine and daughter, Judi, of North Miller way, have returned from their European trip.

The George Arnolds, South Miller way had as houseguests last week, Mrs. William Arnold and her five children from Cleveland, Ohio. The Arnolds had Mrs. John L. Kessler and her three children from Kansas City as dinner guests Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Reeves, formerly of Wing Lake road, have moved into their home on Golfview drive.

The Howard Kehrels of South Miller way took a few days last week for a return trip to Cleveland to see old neighbors.

The George Garys, Lahser road, recently spent a couple of weeks in Maine. The Gary's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Braune of Rochester, N. Y., are expected this Sunday for a visit.

On a Tuesday afternoon auxiliary police of the civil defense unit along with members from the regular Birmingham police force, including Police Chief Ralph Mosley, met at Jim Teabody's home on Quanton road for a steak roast.

The Bob Dusseaux, recently at the Masonic Temple for a sneak preview of the 1956 model cars, were up to Hidden Valley, Oregon last weekend. This week Jean and Bob are heading up to Petoskey and Walloon Lake for some fishing.

Dorothy Livingston's mother, Mrs. Olive Parker, had a birthday August 7, and the Livingstons had a party for the family in their Shadow lane home.

ONE YEAR OLD
Miss Leslie Lynn Day, Maple road, celebrated a birthday August 11 with friends and family at Davon Gables. A birthday cake was brought to the table, and Miss Day was presented with gifts. Leslie took her pink rubber spoon with her—all the better to eat that cake with the one candle on it. Leslie is the daughter of the Frank S. Days of Maple road.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnett B. Grisinger, Shadow lane, have left for a two-week trip to Oklahoma. Their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis of Detroit are staying in the Grisinger home during their absence.

James R. Hosley Home Damaged by Fire Monday Night

LATHRUP — Fire which started Monday night August 15 in the center bedroom of the James R. Hosley home, 2125 Bush, spread to three other bedrooms before it was extinguished by the Southfield fire department. Extensive damage was caused by heat, smoke and water.

Hosley's teen-aged son was burned on the arm and his hair singed while calling the fire department, having delayed his call so he could wake his family.

The fire was said to be caused by children playing with matches and according to Southfield fire chief, Albert Cruck damage was heavy. The house was insured.

In 1953 state governments employed 761,000 persons, not including school teachers.
