

Bridal Party Keeps Busy As Wedding Day is Near

Wedding bells will ring at 8 p.m., Aug. 27 for Lyndal Sue Reed when she becomes the bride of R. Wayne Simon in the First Presbyterian church.

The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford C. Reed and she is the daughter of the late Mrs. G. B. Peterson of Bluffton, Ind.

She will be arriving that day. Maids arriving from Indiana will be Patricia Buckner of Indianapolis and Mary Ann McNary of Centerville. The bridesmaids will be Bobbe Ballow of Michigan City.

OTHER guests will include Mrs. H. S. Henderson, grandmother of the bride, Mrs. G. B. Peterson, Mrs. Robert Cooper, Mrs. Helen Simon and Mrs. C. C. Ross.

Mrs. and Mrs. Simon will give the rehearsal dinner at Pine Lake country club on Friday evening for the bridal party.

Lyndal was graduated from Stephens college and Indiana University where she was an Alpha Chi Omega. The prospective bridegroom will graduate from Indiana University in February. He is affiliated with Avaca.

Olympic Trials Activity Center At Duffy's Home

At the Irving A. Duffy's Manor road home this summer all activity has centered around preparations for the U. S. Olympic Equestrian Team Trials to be held this Labor Day week end at Metamora. The Duffy's son, Frank, 18, will participate in the three-day event. Last year Frank took top honors at the three-day Olympic trials at Nashville, Tenn. Winners at Metamora will be invited to Tryon, N. C. to train at the Olympic training center from February through June next year.

Houseguest for the summer at the Duffy's home has been Major Robert Borg of The Dales, Ore., who coached the Dressage clinic at the Bloomfield Open Hunt Club this summer.

Tomorrow, the Duffys will be hosts to Carl Brown of Castle Park, Mich., Brig. Gen. F. W. Boye of Warrington, Va., and Ernst Mahler of Milwaukee and Tryon, N. C., who will be here to confer with Mr. Duffy regarding the final plans for the training center in Tryon. The 1956 Equestrian Olympics will be held in Sweden.

Youngsters Present Outdoor Carnival

The backyard of the Harold Greenwood home at 2209 Windmere will be transformed into a midway next week when neighborhood youngsters present their outdoor carnival.

This is the third year that neighborhood children have presented this event, with proceeds going to the Polio fund. Last year they earned over $23.

Over 18 youngsters, grade-schoolers and high-schoolers, are participating in the affair to be held Sept. 2 from 2 to 4:30 p.m. Among featured attractions will be refreshments, games and door prizes.

MRS. JOHN D. MAGYARI, JR.

Mr. and Mrs. Magyari Motor to California

Catherine Waryanka become the bride of John D. Magyari, Jr., on Aug. 13 at the Holy Ghost Russian Orthodox church in Detroit.

The Rev. John Baack performed the ceremony at 4 p.m. before 200 wedding guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Waryanka of Irwin, Pa. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Magyari of 15554 Amherst, Beverly Hills.

THE BRIDE chose a gown of nylon tulle with a lace neckline which formed a scalloped train. A tiara crown held her fingertip veil. Staphanotis and white roses centered by an orchid formed the bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Virgil Westmoreland, the bride's sister, of East Detroit was the matron of honor. She wore a gown of taupe-colored crystallette with a daisy headpiece and carried bouquets of yellow roses, daisies, and bronze mums.

THE BRIDESMAIDS were Marie Magyari, a cousin of the groom, and Carole Jean Magyari, his sister. They wore yellow crystallette dresses and matching shoes with daisy headpieces and carried bouquets of yellow roses, daisies, and bronze mums.

Stephen M. Magyari, the groom's brother, was the best man; seating the guests were Michael Magyari and John Griz, both of Detroit.

The bride's mother wore a dusty rose lace dress with a purple orchid corsage. The groom's mother wore a powder blue crystallette cocktail gown with a sequined hat and an orchid corsage.

A RECEPTION for 200 at the Detroit Lebonon hall was held following the ceremony and dinner.

On Sunday afternoon, according to custom, the groom's parents entertained with an open house for out-of-town guests. After the open house the couple left for a month's motor trip with California as their destination. When they return they will make their home in Detroit.

Parents Announce Wedding Plans

Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Gobel of Kimberly road announce the engagement of their daughter, Ann Louise, to John Stephen Dixon.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Dixon of Hamilton, Ohio. Ann attended Michigan State university. Her fiancé attended Tri State university in Indiana and the University of Cincinnati.

The wedding is planned for November in Mansfield, Ohio, where the Gobel family will be residing at that time.
