Brazilian Missionary Guest At William G. Moore Home

It will be a renewal of old acquaintances when Mr. and Mrs. William Grant Moore of 2165 Longmeadow, Bloomfield township, are hosts tomorrow to Miss Carman St. John Wolff of Rio de Janeiro, for the Moores lived in Rio and Sao Paulo, Brazil before coming to Birmingham this April.

Miss Wolff, the only woman missionary of the Episcopal church in Brazil, is en route to the General Protestant Episcopal convention in Hawaii.

She will be here for only one day this month, but will return in October to visit with the Moores, at which time Mrs. Moore will entertain in her honor.

The weekend of August 12 Mr. and Mrs. Moore and their four children vacationed at Holland, at the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. John Charles Braemelack of St. Louis, Mo.

The Braemelacks returned with the Moores and were houseguests here for four days, leaving the middle of the week for St. Louis. This was the first time the Braemelacks, who, incidentally, have four children of their own, had seen the two younger Moore children, Brian, 6, and John, 1.

John was born in Sao Paulo and Brian did not go to St. Louis, Louisiana, earlier this year when his mother took Grant, 12, and Anne, 10, and visited for a week with the Braemelacks. Before living in Brazil, the Moores were residents of St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. Noel F. C. Habercosts of Rushburn road have as their houseguests for the month of August Mrs. Habercost's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Clementson of St. Paul, Minn. Sunday before last the Howards of Ogden of Royal Oak were hosts to a barbecue in honor of the Clementsons.
