MRS. BARTON J. CONNORS

Sandra McAuley Wed At Kirk in the Hills

Before an altar flanked with white gladioli and chrysanthemums, Sandra Eva McAuley and Barton J. Connors exchanged marriage vows Saturday afternoon at Kirk in the Hills.

The Rev. Harold Fredsell performed the double-ring ceremony at 2 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred T. McAuley of Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bart Connors of Northville.

The wait length gown of white alençon lace with alternate inserts of crystal-pleated nylon tulle over satin in the bodice and skirt was fashioned with a portrait neckline and long sleeves.

Her fingertip French illusion veil was secured by an alençon lace bandeau with tulle, seed pearls and sequins.

White carnations and stephanotis formed the bridal bouquet.

Mrs. William H. Linow, Jr., was matron of honor and Gladys Gray was bridesmaid. Their pink waltz length dresses of cotton Belgium lace over pink silk taffeta had sweep necklines and bouffant skirts. They wore small caps of horse-hair braid with tiny nose veils and carried bouquets of pink carnations and ivy.

John A. Clark of Constantine was best man. Seating the guests were Leslie G. Lee, Richard Scharksburg, both of Northville, and James Baggerly of Clarkston.

The bride's mother wore a gown of champagne brocade silk and wore a velvet aqua hat of leaf design. The groom's mother wore a gown of dove green silk taffeta with a portrait neckline and a lace yoke with a black velvet hat trimmed with jet beading. Both mothers wore orchid corsages.

A reception at Bevon Gables followed the ceremony. For their wedding trip to northern Michigan, the new Mrs. Connors wore a sheath jacket dress in copper tones with moss green accessories.

On their return the newlyweds will live in Clarkston.
