Nahabedians Hosts To Lodge Members
 WALNUT LAKE—The grounds of the John Nahabedian home on Walnut Lake road swarmed with people last Sunday as fellow lodge members of the boat arrived with their families to hold the annual picnic of Mt. Ararat Lodge No. 582. Nahabedian is past master of this lodge.
 Games, races, swimming, boating and an outdoor meal occupied the crowd throughout the day.

Sept. 12 Meeting of WNFCA Cancelled
 WALNUT LAKE—The September 12 regular monthly meeting of the Walnut Lake division of the Women's National Farm and Garden association is being cancelled according to president, Mrs. E. S. Maund.
 This is being taken off the schedule to give members more time to work on the coming flower show, which is the highlight of the year's activities.
 Board members will meet at the home of Mrs. Neil Lund, on Laramore road, Monday morning, August 26.

Two New Families Welcomed Into Walnut Lake Community
 Welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. McCarthy, of West Dartmouth road, and their two small fry, Wally, 3, and David, 1. The McCarthys, both of whom claim New York from their home state, moved to Birmingham three years ago from New Jersey.
 McCarthy is associated with the Atomic Power Development Association, Incorporated, of Detroit, and is a member of the American Nuclear Society and the American Society of Mechanical Engineers.
 The couple are both graduates of Cornell university, where Mrs. McCarthy received her MA in home economics.
 McCarthy has made a hobby of photography, which he hopes to develop more and more as his children grow, and confesses a fascination with model railroading. The newcomers expect to spend their vacation working on the garden and generally getting more settled in their new home.

Welcome, too, to the William E. Becker, who moved to Kenmore road from their former home at the corner of Greenfield and Amherst in Birmingham. They have one son, Terrell, 16, who will start his sophomore year at Birmingham high school next month.
 Mrs. Becker's hobby is making miniature doll clothes, and this has grown into such a large-scale venture that her tiny garments are in demand for sale at many large stores around Detroit.
 Becker is associated with Odell, Hewlett and Luckenbach, architects, located on Hunter boulevard in Birmingham. He is general superintendent of the Northville State Hospital project.
 The Beckers plan to vacation in the Upper Peninsula, as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Max Kowatz. They will be visiting at Platt lake, in the Traverse Bay area.
 Houseguests at the home of the John Nahabedians on Walnut Lake road are their mothers, Mrs. Anna Junjian of Birmingham and Mrs. Anna Nahabedian of Highland Park.
 The Reese Honn family, formerly on Kenmore road, Essex, sold their home here and are busy supervising the building of a new place in Farmington. They are living temporarily in Detroit.
JOHN'S VACATION
 Young John Kowatz, M. Kowatz's son, has had a busy summer. He has spent a busy summer, both at home getting acquainted with his new neighborhood, and for the last month in the east, traveling with his grandparents.
 Leaving here with his paternal grandparents, Mrs. John Kowatz of Mechanicsville, N. J., Kowatz flew to Washington, where he spent some time, then on to Cape May, N. J., for a week, and another week in Ocean City, N. J., visiting "Papa Daves".
 Leaving Ocean City, he visited an aunt in Shrewsbury, N. J., for another week, then drove to the home of his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. With at Krosswood, in Wooddown, N. J. After getting thoroughly acquainted with Krosswood, he was driven home over the Pennsylvania turnpike by the Withs, who were making their first visit to their daughter's Birmingham home.
 In their delight at having Kowatz home again, and because of the reports from all the relatives on his exemplary behavior, while

Bunn Family Home After Tennessee Vacation Trip
 WALNUT LAKE—Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Bunn, of Kenmore road, spent their vacation taking a long-awaited trip to Nashville, Tenn. Nashville is the birthplace of Mrs. Bunn, from which she had moved away at the age of seven and not seen since.
 The Bunn's were enchanted with the town through the beautiful Smokies, and enjoyed Nashville and the thrill of looking at relatives there and in Shelbyville.
 They toured Mammoth Caves, and stopped off at Fort Knox for a visit with Mrs. Bunn's brother. They thought that Falls, Crook Falls and Cumberland Falls were lovely sights but were more than glad to return north again. Back in Michigan, they travelled north to Hardy, Tenn. for a few days of fishing.
 Last week Beverly Ann Bunn was treated to a birthday party in honor of her fourth milestone. A ten-foot slide was the special treat given to her by the family.
 Friends who arrived to share in the celebration were Sandra and Linda Crumb, Candy and Bobo Spangler, Candy Schneider and Laurie Honn. Sandra, Pat and Linda and brother Peter were also present. Mrs. Reese Honn and Mrs. Kenneth Crumb were on hand to share in the fun.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Crumb, of Ballantyne road, have been happy to have the privilege of entertaining Crumb's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Crumb of Belle River, Ont. During their stay, Crumb took part of his vacation in order to visit with the family.
 The Jerry Haines family of East Dartmouth road have returned from a vacation spent at Sandusky, Mich. and Mrs. Donald Waller, daughters Barbara and Sara have recently returned from their parents' home in Chicago. While there they traveled with old friends of the Haines family, the Walters. The Walters had reservations at this residence on Raymond place.

WANT TO BE KIDDED?
 Irresponsible brokers are quick to overprice a house just to get an exclusive listing. If you want to be delighted and disappointed—that's fine. BUT, we do not use that method.
 We prefer frank, confidential discussions about the current market when listing properties. We will not hypobate prices beyond what we honestly believe the property will sell for. Some owners resent the truth, but our records are long and certain that seriously overpricing homes cost the owner far more money than necessary had he taken our counsel in the first place. You can rely on our valuating.

As you can see by the picture, this is a brick Colonial home in an established neighborhood. Attractive mature trees lend their shade and natural beauty to this home.
