Surprise Party Features Barbecue on Back Terrace

A surprise party with all the trimmings took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Gadd of 13 Mile road last Saturday evening, August 20. The Gadds gave the party in honor of Mrs. William Bond and Mrs. Edward Klapproph.

After serving cocktails, the guests of honor and other guests enjoyed a barbecue dinner on the Gadd's back terrace. An outdoor barbecue dinner turned into a real party due to rain. They had just as much fun as they could, and the dinner was a success. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. James M. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Bird, Mr. and Mrs. Norville Pugh, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Fomm, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Orr of St. Clair and the honored guest's husbands.

Also there to attend the party was the Gadd's son, George Reinold, who just returned from attending summer school at Princeton.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. McKenna of West Lincoln road gave a farewell dinner party in their home Saturday, August 13. The dinner was in honor of Al Davis, a business associate, and Mrs. Davis.

FISH FRY

The frying pan was plenty hot and full of fresh fish Saturday evening, August 13, when Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. McKinnon of West Lincoln road had a fish fry. Between cocktails everyone pitched in to help fry the fish. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Kinney, Mrs. Daniel Pino, Mr. and Mrs. Gray Householder of

The Steinhardts Worn Out Keeping Up With 8-Year-Old Nephew Bill

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Steinhardt of Balmoral were in New York for a week accompanied by their eight-year-old nephew, Bill Maine.

Keeping up with Bill, who didn't want to miss a thing from the Statue of Liberty to the Empire State building, really made 32876 Balmoral look good to them, when they returned and were ready for a place to relax.

Since then Mrs. Steinhardt's sister, Miss Teresa Steinhardt and a niece, Joan Thielke, flew from Buffalo for a week's visit, and then Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Thielke and daughter, Dolores, came to drive them home. On Saturday Mrs. Steinhardt gave a dinner party for 12 in honor of her guests from out of town. Those included were Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Steinhardt, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Crow and Mrs. Ben Jacob, all of

HOME FROM CAMP

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Zebuloff of Riverside have returned from northern Michigan and with them came their daughter, Sheryl, who has spent the last seven weeks at Camp Crystalite on crystal lake near Frankfort.

They attended the camp exhibitions and saw Sheryl come through with flying colors in different sports which are featured at this camp. She not only showed great ability in water sports, but also in the equestrian competition.

In the swimming show she came out first in the first team, and second in the second team. In the riding show she won first prize in her group, and was one of two junior equestrians to ride in the Tennessee walker class. Leaving camp they all went to Big Bass lake near Johanna where they were entertained in the summer home of the A. E. Stuenkel of Bloomfield Hills.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Chekowsky of Warwick avenue also found northern Michigan a refuge from the August heat. After 10 days at Portage Point on Lake Michigan above Manistee, they came down the shore to Ludington. Here they spent three days in the Epworth hotel, a place familiar to those who have gone to this well known resort through the years.

Leaving here they proceeded north to the tip of the thumb and stayed a short time at Cedar Lodge on Northport Point. Finally after visiting friends on Grand Traverse Bay, they returned to Beverly Hills.

HAVE YOU MET

The Ganshans, who live at 32470 Northeast, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Ganshan came to Beverly Hills in early July. Their former home was Houston, Texas. They have four children, Richard, 12 and three girls, Kenzie, 8, and twins, Susan and Meg, 4. Mr. Ganshan is connected with the Automotive Rubber company and they will be attending the Episcopal church.

Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Reas, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Owens and the McKinnon's daughter, Nancy.

While there they attended the races at Saratoga but didn't boast of any winnings. Last Friday evening the McKinnons served cocktails to Mr. and Mrs. Ted Lindsay and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mathews before attending the dinner dance at Oakland Hills Country club.

Cocktails and a buffet dinner took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Ivanoff of Old Mill road Saturday, August 13, celebrating Mr. Ivanoff's birthday.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Massey, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Crawford, both of Grosse Pointe, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Powell and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Sanders.

Also present were Mr. and Mrs. N. Lair of Dearborn, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Gravelle, Mr. and Mrs. Roger O. Berg of Oxford, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Shedd, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Ingram, Mr. and Mrs. Nichol Hurvath of Allen Park and Mr. and Mrs. William Dutton of Royal Oak.

BIG, BIG FISH

Home from a week's vacation at Drummond Island in the Upper Peninsula are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kure and their son, Gerry, of Wedgewood road. They took their vacation with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kow and their children, Cheryl and twins Darlene and Darnell.

The fishing was excellent, they report. The men hired a French guide to take them fishing who really knew where to find the bass and pike.

Their smallest fish measured 24 inches and the longest was 34 inches long. While there, the vacationers saw a very unusual sight. Besides seeing many deer, they saw two bobcats. Also along on the vacation was the Kurz' dog, "Stag."

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. McElonald of Oak Hills drive recently returned from a week's vacation and visit with friends, Mr. and Mrs. Olin DeForge in Rutland, Vt.
