Colvin-Fruit Vows Spoken in Indiana

The Zion Evangelical and Reformed church in South Bend, Ind., was the setting for the wedding of Virginia Pauline Fruit and John Cannon Colvin on Saturday.

The Rev. Edward W. Brueske, D.D., performed the 3 p.m. ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester McKinley Fruit of South Bend, Ind. Her husband is the son of Dr. Leslie T. Colvin of Detroit and Mrs. Albert Eckfeld, of 1060 E. Long Lake road.

THE BRIDAL FLOOR-LENGTH GOWN of white hand-clipped chantilly lace and French tulle had a portrait neckline edged with scalloped lace and a lace fitted bodice buttoned down the back and long lace sleeves ending in points over the wrists. The bouffant skirt of French tulle had front lace panels with wide ruffles of French tulle down the back.

A skull cap with a tiny pleated tulle ruffle around the edges, trimmed with seed pearls and iridescent sequins held the fingertip veil of lace and French tulle.

The bridal bouquet was a white orchid surrounded by stephanotis.

THE MATRON OF HONOR was the groom's sister, Mrs. Frank A. Chapman of New Hartford, N. Y. Bridesmaids were Mrs. James A. Koch of Chicago and Jane Dye of Monon, Ind.

Attendants wore princess style dresses of the blue crystalite taffeta with portrait necklines and cap sleeves. The bouffant gored skirts had bows in the back. Head pieces were matching tiaras trimmed with pearls and sequins. They carried bouquets of pink rubrum lilies tied with pink satin ribbons.

BEST MAN WAS the groom's brother-in-law, Frank A. Chapman of New Hartford, N. Y. Seating the guests were Robert Washburn of South Bend and William Hutchison of Mishawaka, Ind.

The church was decorated with two altar vases filled with pink gladiolas and blue majestic daisies. Inside the chancel rail were standing candelabra and vases filled with pink glads.

A RECEPTION in the church center followed the ceremony. On their return from their honeymoon trip into northern Michigan, the
