Patricia McInnes Feted by Parties

Patricia Ann McInnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. McInnes, 680 Brookside, has completed plans for exchange of nuptial vows with Gerald Neil Moody. The wedding will be Aug. 13 at the Shrine of the Little Flower at noon.

A number of parties have been given in honor of the bride-elect recently. Arlene Verville of Berkley entertained at a supper and linen shower.

Mrs. David Sharkey of Royal Oak was hostess at a miscellaneous shower in Patricia's honor.

Hostess for a kitchen shower honoring Patricia was Mrs. Ernest Cuthbertson of Detroit.

On Aug. 9, Mrs. Richard Hindley and Mrs. Charles F. McCarthy, both of Birmingham, will be cohostesses at a luncheon and round-the-clock shower.

Both Patricia and her fiance attended Michigan State university.

PATRICIA ANN JANICKY

Neighbors Stage Rousing Welcome-Home for Rinnells

Arriving home last Sunday after a three-year absence, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Rinnell and their three young sons had a spectacular welcome served up by neighbors in the Cranbrook-Yarmouth area.

The Rinnells found their home on N. Cranbrook road decorated with a huge sign reading, "Welcome Home," and the shrubbery dying small American flags, borrowed from local Cub Scouts.

The Rinnells have been in Georgia where Dr. Rinnell has served in the Army as a dentist.

A more official welcome was accorded the returnees Tuesday evening by the Vincent Van Fleets of 1070 North Cranbrook at a picnic supper at their home.

Among the close friends and neighbors present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lynch of Covington road, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schlachter of Yarmouth, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hymans of Yarmouth and Mrs. Burke F. Cuenv and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Boyd of north Cranbrook road.

With deep suntans acquired during six weeks spent in Hawaii, Barb Bertling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee A. Bertling of 668 Ardmoor, and Marno Wiesler of Birmingham, returned home on July 24.

The following Friday, Barb's parents left for Wisconsin and fishing. On the way, they visited theid youngest son, Bill, at Burt lake camp and while in Wisconsin they will visit their younger daughter, Jane.

TEENAGERS PERFORM

Diversified talent among teenagers of Oakland Hills families was on display at the club's Family Night on July 28.

Directing the show was Chuck Smith, and heading the costume and make-up committees were the Frank Lynches. Betsy Bauer, Jan Lynch, Sue Murray, Hope Hymans and Sue Schlachter were included among the hostesses, and adding glamour to the "I Can't Say No" number were Julie Smith, Lyn Grieca, and Bonnie Wasson.

Accompanied by the Jules Klein orchestra, the Sheldon sisters, Pat and Peg made a name for themselves as a sister duet.

Two of the five talented "Rhythmettes" were Villagers Anne Bauer and Jackie Paulus. Doing effective jobs on the make-up committee were Sally Schlachter and Mary Baldez.

Susan Murray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Murray of 800 Covington, has been chosen as a member of the college board at the Village Store in Birmingham. Susan will begin her freshman year in the fall at Rollins college in Miami, Fla.

Another industrious Villager is Bob Terry, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Terry of Hall Moon drive. "Bob Terry, Incorporated" is a Village car-wash agency, with dividends going towards a college wardrobe. Bob will be a freshman at Albion.

Trudy Vose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Vose of 436 Glengary circle, and Julie Stubbs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Stubbs of 601 N. Glengary road "make the rounds" daily at 5 a.m. in the northwest section of the Village, delivering the morning Free Press.

Upon their arrival home after vacationing in northern Michigan for several weeks, the West Gallghs of 3560 Wooddale court will have as house guests their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Beacon of Pittsburgh, Pa., and their young grandson.

WELCOME NEWCOMERS

Newcomers to the Village are the R. L. Nortons of Raynale and Westwood, as of this evening, August 4. The Nortons are from Dearborn and have two daughters.

Linda will be a sophomore at Birmingham High school and nine-year-old Anne will attend Quarton school this fall.

Norton is president of the Federal Screw company.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Schlachter of 920 Yarmouth and their children left on July 30, for northern Michigan to spend a vacation at Murray's Inn.

Have You Met

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Dow who moved from Berkley with their family about a month ago to their home at 1870 Cole street? The Dows have three sons, Everett, 8, Leonard, 4, and baby Billie, 4 months. Dow is employed by the Motor City Instrument company where he does precision repair work, such as repair of micrometers. The Dows are both very interested in archery. In fact, Dow has won two trophies in archery tournaments and is looking forward to competing in future tournaments. In his spare time, he used to also make arrows.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Suffel of 750 Woodale road and their daughter, Jody, will visit Judy's older sister, Pat, at Interlochen this weekend. They will watch Pat perform in the lead role in an operetta there.

Mrs. Reed Jenkins and her daughter Nancy of North Cranbrook and Sandy Helmrich of Birmingham will leave August 10, for the Jenkins' cottage on Pickerel lake near Petoskey. On the way up they will stop to visit Nancy's younger sister, Barb, who is at Hilltop camp.

To set the record straight, it is not Paula Strnick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Strnick of Hamilton road, who is going to Philadelphia this month with Susan Leahy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Leahy of Hupp Cross road, to represent Canicani lodge in the Women's National Swimming championship meet.

Paula reports that the honor goes instead to Linda Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Myers, of 1450 Echo road in Bloomfield Hills.
