Local Families Return From Northern Vacations

Home again from summer vacations spent sunning, swimming and enjoying cool lake breezes are several East Beverly families.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sifferman got home Sunday from a two week holiday with their youngsters. Kit and Jimmie, that began with a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jacobson in Milwaukee.

During their stay there, the Jacobsons took them on a day's cruise on their 38-foot cabin cruiser up to Staragon Bay. A stop with friends in Green Bay was highlighted with a fast Christ-craft ride, and on the way home there were stops in Illinois and visits with relatives before the Siffermans reached home on Marguerite drive.

With their children, Linda and Danny, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Drake of Verona circle, spent a week at Fair Acres resort at Talvas, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Pravel and their daughter Marsha, 5, chose a vacation in the upper peninsula, featuring a five mile trip through the woods on the "Tooner-ville Trolley" and a ferry boat ride to see Taquemenon Falls. For a week before starting back home, the Pravel family stayed at a cottage at Traverse Bay.

The Carlos Inouilles and their sons, Dennis and Hugh, spent their vacation together near Lexington at the Blue Water reunion of their

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Deuel of Eastland road announce a new arrival in their family circle by the name of Ruth Ann, born July 12 at Grace Hospital and weighs 11 1/2 pounds and a half pound. The other Deuel children are Debora and Charles ("Chucky") 3 and a half years old.

Joanne Greiner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Greiner, Westwood road, recently spent a week-end in Grand Rapids with school friends.

Joanne and her sister, Rose Marie are attending summer school at the University of Detroit.

Helen Cudini, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger G. Cudini of Lakeside road, is a lucky girl to miss all of this scorching weather. Helen left July 1 to spend several weeks at Camp Caval on Lake Huron. She plans to return around the middle of August.

Mr. and Mrs. Ava Sherwood of Lahier road recently returned from a business-and-pleasure trip to Charlottesville, Va., where they visited Sherwood's brother, Charles and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Glendon.

The Glens formerly lived in New York and had just moved to Charlottesville, so the Sherwoods were like a welcoming committee.

In spite of the heat, Mrs. Rowland H. Starr entertained 12 guests at a luncheon in her home on Old Mill road July 28.

Guests luncheon on Mrs. Starr's cool screened terrace were Mrs. William Markle, Mrs. Raymond Loux, Mrs. Fred Jaynes, Mrs. Walter Ahlers, Mrs. Paul Kilborn, Mrs. Howard Ely, Mrs. William Trout, Mrs. Albert Nancorol, Mrs. Vinton B. Hart, Mrs. Frank Rickle and Mrs. O. L. Bard.

Mr. and Mrs. Neville K. Abbott of Sherwood road and their daughter, Jeanne and Laura, spend the weekend of July 24 at Houghtons Lake where they stayed at the Hotel Burdell.

Last Saturday, grandparents Mr. and Mrs. John McKee arrived from Menton, Ohio to pick up Jeanne and Laura to take them back to Mentor for a brief visit. The girls will return around the end of August.

For the past week Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Lawrence of Parkhurst land have had their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Parker Lawrence and their year-old daughter, Lynn, visiting them from Fort Wayne, Ind.

U.P. VACATION
A relaxing trip to the Upper Peninsula spelled vacations for Mrs. Paul Droege and their children, Susan and Paul. They returned to their home on Jackson Park Lane July 23.

While travelling, they took a five mile trip through the wilderness on what Mrs. Droege called the "Tooner-ville Trolley" before boarding a ferryboat to see Tal-
