Fred Canhams of Dolores Entertain Former Neighbors

Recent guests of the Fred Canhams of Dolores were the Leo Browns, former Lathrupites, now making their home in Pittsburgh, Pa.
 Mrs. Brown is well remembered for her high bowling score while a member of the Lathrup Women's Bowling league.
 Mrs. Canham is looking forward to a trip later this month to Pittsburgh where she will visit her mother.
 Mrs. Fred S. Cummins of Rainlow circle has just returned from a flying trip to Oak Park, Ill., where she visited friends and relatives for a week.
 More returned vacationers are the J. W. Checkaways of Eldorado, with son Jack, 11, the Checkaways spent two weeks at Portage Point Inn where they fished, sailed and went swimming.
 This is the 45th year they have vacationed at the Inn.
 The Alex Checkaways of Beverly Hills were also guests there at the same time.
 On a visit to Mackinac Island last week Dorothy Zisell had a speed boat ride through a rolling swell out to see the progress made on the new Straits bridge.
 Carefully keeping one eye on the horizon, as instructed, to avoid seasickness she viewed the project with the other eye.
 The size of the great supports for the main span is overwhelming when seen close-up from below. Dorothy says, and workers in steel helmets look like ants swarming high above.
 Most of the supports for the five-mile-long, 100 million dollar bridge seem to be near completion and the engineers hope to have the bridge open to traffic by November, 1955 as the finished date.
 All through northern Michigan Dorothy found the Straits Bridge project to be the main topic of conversation, with comments stressing Michigan's pride in having such a beautiful bridge to show the world.

NEW ARRIVALS
 New arrivals recently bantized by Rev. Cyril Keating of St. Bee's church are Arnold David Farina, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Farina; Susan Marie Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jackson; Robert Allan Lubeller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lubeller; Constance Lynne Grizzell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Grizzell; John Alexander Valentino, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Valentino; William Samuel Porter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Porter.

Carol Flemming, Linda Taggart and Jean Norton won auditions for the Concerto ballet, which will be directed by William Dollar of the New York City Ballet company and presented at the Art Institute in October.
 Carol is understudy to the star, Linda is a member of the first company, and Jean of the second.
 Of 50 students, 22 were chosen for the production. Rehearsal begins August 6.
 Mary Ann Stellman, who will attend the University of Michigan in September, has a job in the office of Ensign paint company this summer.
 With the achievement of a junior life-saving badge her chief aim, Karen Taggart is spending two weeks at Camp Michawanna, in Hastings.

On a combined vacation and business trip, Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Stellman of Margate avenue were recent guests of Pfeiffer brewing company, in Minneapolis. They were there at the right time to enjoy the sights of Aquatic Week, the Mardi Gras of the north.
 Linda Taggart left Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Wheeler of Huntington, N. Y., to visit with their daughter, Wren. Linda who will have her first plate ride, coming home, was already looking forward to it when she left.
