

Where you live is the everyday opportunity to help yourself by helping others. It has truthfully been said that "no man ever grows taller than he who stoops down to help a child." Would you be loved? ... then show your worthiness.

THE McBRIDE HOUSE FIRE started either in kitchen (left) or library (right). State fire marshal's office believes it started from stove, Bloomfield Fire Chief feels it was short circuit in library. McBride's body was found in corner of the library where chair is.

THE McBRIDE HOUSE FIRE started either in kitchen (left) or library (right). State fire marshal's office believes it started from stove, Bloomfield Fire Chief feels it was short circuit in library. McBride's body was found in corner of the library where chair is.

Assessor 19 Years, Haack Retires Soon

Wants to Leave by Next April

Will Re-Emphasize 14, 16 Mile Needs

More definite commitments on opening of 14 Mile road and improvement of 16 Mile will be sought by Birmingham officials when they meet Monday morning with the Oakland county road commission.

Birmingham's assessor for the past 19 years, Elmer W. Haack plans to retire from his municipal job and establish his own fee appraisal service, he disclosed yesterday.

HARVEY GARDNER LUCE

Ad Exec Luce Dies Suddenly

Harvey Gardner Luce, executive vice president who had lived in Bloomfield Hills since World War II, was buried in White Chapel cemetery Monday following funeral rites at Christ Church Cranbrook.

His death early last Friday was attributed to a heart attack. Mr. Luce had worked regularly, including a little that where he had been in 1934 and where he had been in 1934 and where he had been in 1934.

THIS and THAT

A young French scholar is trying to catch 50,000 miles of hitchhiking in our country, as part of a program to improve his resourcefulness. His actual expenses are paid from a scholarship he has received.

Stores Ban Women For Men's Night

It will be a man's world when Birmingham males go shopping Monday, Dec. 5, as local merchants hold their fourth annual Men's Night from 7 to 10 p.m.

2 Causes Seen for Fatal Fire

Two causes have been listed for the fire which Saturday took the life of Jesse E. McBride as he slept in the library of his home at 1216 Cranbrook road, Bloomfield Village.

Post Office Sets Yule Schedule, Plans Sub-Station

The Birmingham post office will be open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. daily except Sundays. Sunday hours will be from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Comedienne Anna Russell On Town Hall

Anna Russell, British-born musical satirist and concert comedienne, considered by the program committee as a new asset to this season's Birmingham Town Hall series, will appear today and tomorrow at the Birmingham Theater at 11 a.m.

15 Pioneers Of B'ham YMCA To Be Honored

Many of the early Birmingham residents instrumental in establishing the YMCA branch here will be honored by the local association next spring at the 10th Anniversary recognition night of the Birmingham YMCA.

Cindy Works To Aid Pamela

To raise money for phonograph records for a 10-year-old William Beattom, hospital patient who faces 9 more operations, due to serious burns, Miss Cynthia Price presented a puppet show Friday.

Cindy Works To Aid Pamela

To raise money for phonograph records for a 10-year-old William Beattom, hospital patient who faces 9 more operations, due to serious burns, Miss Cynthia Price presented a puppet show Friday.

Traffic Signal Wins Approval

A traffic signal at the Southfield-Woodward intersection was okayed this week by the Birmingham city commission.

Stores Open Nights Starting Dec. 12

Beginning Dec. 12, most Birmingham stores will stay open until 9 o'clock every evening, the merchants committee of the Chamber of Commerce announced this week.

Be a Safe Driver Today!

Stick around for S-D Day, 1936! Birmingham Chief of Police Ralph W. Moxley urged all motorists and pedestrians to participate in today's S-D Day activities and help keep traffic accidents at a minimum.

Stick Around for S-D Day, 1936!

Birmingham Chief of Police Ralph W. Moxley urged all motorists and pedestrians to participate in today's S-D Day activities and help keep traffic accidents at a minimum.

INSIDE THE ECCENTRIC

- PHOTO PAGE: Section 4, Page 1; Slumber Party Section 2, Page 2; Postal Department Recommends Lathrup Branch Post Office Section 5, Page 1; Area Churchwomen Plan Christmas Meetings Section 4, Page 7; Royal Oak Spoils Undeafened Football Season Section 5, Page 6; Amusements Section Page; Bits of Birmingham 1-6; Church 4-6,7; Correspondents: Berkshire 5-8; Bloomfield Village 5-4; East Beverly 5-4; Franklin 5-4; Gilbert Lake 5-3; Lathrup Village 5-8; Mayfield Woods 5-5; Walnut Lake 5-3; West Beverly 5-2; Wing Lake-Foxcroft 5-6; Down to Earth 4-4; Nature Now 4-8; Obituaries 1-6; Round the Towns 2-1; School 2-5,6; Society 2,3,4,5,4; Sports 6-7; Theaters 6-4; Want Ads 1-4,5

Be a Safe Driver Today!

Stick around for S-D Day, 1936! Birmingham Chief of Police Ralph W. Moxley urged all motorists and pedestrians to participate in today's S-D Day activities and help keep traffic accidents at a minimum.

Be a Safe Driver Today!

Stick around for S-D Day, 1936! Birmingham Chief of Police Ralph W. Moxley urged all motorists and pedestrians to participate in today's S-D Day activities and help keep traffic accidents at a minimum.

Be a Safe Driver Today!

Stick around for S-D Day, 1936! Birmingham Chief of Police Ralph W. Moxley urged all motorists and pedestrians to participate in today's S-D Day activities and help keep traffic accidents at a minimum.

Be a Safe Driver Today!

Stick around for S-D Day, 1936! Birmingham Chief of Police Ralph W. Moxley urged all motorists and pedestrians to participate in today's S-D Day activities and help keep traffic accidents at a minimum.

Be a Safe Driver Today!

Stick around for S-D Day, 1936! Birmingham Chief of Police Ralph W. Moxley urged all motorists and pedestrians to participate in today's S-D Day activities and help keep traffic accidents at a minimum.

Be a Safe Driver Today!

Stick around for S-D Day, 1936! Birmingham Chief of Police Ralph W. Moxley urged all motorists and pedestrians to participate in today's S-D Day activities and help keep traffic accidents at a minimum.