Southfield High Pupils Busy With Activities

Social event of the year for Southfield freshmen will be the Freshman dance on Dec. 16. Sponsors will be James Shippee, Sally Mathias, Virginia Bryan, William Prewitt, Edward Litogot, William O'Brien, and Nancy Harrington of the school staff.

On the planning committee are class officers Jack Givens, Bill McKinzie, Priscilla Johnson, Beverly Neubert, and Tom Clark. The party is to be "dressy" with games and dancing from 8 to 11 p.m. for freshmen only, with friends and families.

SOUTHFIELD high Debate club, hosted the University of Michigan debaters and their coach recently.

A new style of cross-question debating was introduced to the Southfield students. Following a question period, refreshments were served.

Michigan Normal debaters also visited the high school last week. A symposium on the debate topic of Christmas music and carols. There will be no admission charge, and families are invited to attend and join in the singing at the close of the program.

GLENN SCHOENHALS reports that Southfield high is faced with the problem of lighting for the school football field.

Since most Class A schools have lighted fields, the problem is now under discussion, and information as to costs and practicability is being gathered.

RADIO STATION WJR will transcribe an assembly to be held at Southfield on Dec. 8, to be broadcast on "Junior Town Meeting" Dec. 31 from 7:30 to 8 p.m.

MARINUS VAN AMEYDE, principal of Southfield high school: "Little by little we are discouraging the wearing of blue jeans to school by the boys, but a great deal depends upon the attitude of parents if it is to be completely successful."

Students Present 'The Hasty Heart'

CRANBROOK—For their first public performance of the year, Cranbrook School dramatic students have chosen "The Hasty Heart", to be presented on the evenings of December 2 and 3 at 8 p.m. in the school's auditorium. A comedy-drama by John Patrick, the entire play takes place in a convalescent ward of a British hospital somewhere in the South East-Asia Command during World War II.

"The Hasty Heart" is the story of a Scotsman named Lachlan McLachlan, who is destined to die because of a bad kidney, and of the people who surround him in the hospital.

TICKETS FOR the play may be secured at the door. Both performances are being sponsored by Cranbrook's dramatic group, the Ergasterion Club.
