

B'ham Community Christmas Tree Aglow with Light

The lights have been turned on for the Birmingham municipal Christmas tree in Blain park. The lighting of this tree has been an annual event for many years. The manager scene is set up under the tree in accordance with annual community custom.

The City's department of public works for the first year has decorated a Christmas tree in front of its Eton road building. A DECORATED tree will be set up on the Municipal Building Dec. 19 and a festive note in our municipal offices. This also is an annual custom of several years. These additions to the Christmas lighting in the business section and the individual decorations in stores and homes make our city festively decorated for the holiday season.

Present Program

Piano pupils of Mrs. Richard G. Post presented a program Sunday at her home on Eton road. Mothers were guests. Participating were Bonnie Bundy, Pamela McCree, Richard Broxton, Nancy Zimmerman, Jane Hopper, Lee Bergstrom, Joy Broxton and Frederick Post.

Pre-Christmas Entertaining Keeps New Residents Busy

Holiday time has caught up with the Clifford A. Nelsons since they moved from Manor road to their new home on Brooklands, Bloomfield township. There has been such a round of pre-Christmas festivities, with parties and shopping and entertaining. It is hardly surprising that Mrs. William Riley of Bloomfield moved and will soon be in the new year. The Nelsons hosted a cocktail party preceding the Postcard Ball at Oakland Hills Country club, Dec. 3, and their guests included Mr. and Mrs. George W. St. Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. Verard D. Hanna, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Hoag, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood H. Scott, and from Detroit the Alfred Bertzys. Penny Nelson arrives home this week for the holidays. She is a student at the University of Indiana, Saturday night. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson will give one of a series of their traditional pre-Christmas dinner parties. They have invited Mr. and Mrs. Glen Carlson of Bloomfield Hills, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Carlson

Thursday evening, Mrs. William C. Hazer entertained 12 guests at a shower in honor of Mrs. Robert Rebel of Royal Oak. The Hazers are newcomers to Hickory Heights, moving across Adams road from Pine Hill subdivision this fall. We extend a warm welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Starkey of Bartley drive, Charming Cross Estates. The Starkeys with daughters Shirley and Dorothy Lynde are new residents to the area. Mr. Starkey is with Crane Plumbing of the Starkey Co. Dorothy Lynde graduated from Oak Ridge High School and is a student at Adams school and is a student at Adams school and is a student at Adams school and is a student at Adams school. Mrs. J. E. Fausser of North Adams road, Bloomfield township, will open her home Tuesday evening to the 50 guests who have been invited to the buffet supper that the society is giving as its annual Christmas party. Active from the Michigan State chapter are invited for the evening. Mrs. Fausser, Girl Scout Troop Camp chairman for Southern Oakland County, is recently returned from California where she was among the 5,000 representatives at the Girl Scouts national convention in San Francisco. Following the convention, Mrs. Fausser spent four weeks with her father, Mr. Daniel Thomas of Oakland, before returning home.
