

Students Make Decorations For Hospitalized Children

A group of art students at the Birmingham Community House have been giving their time and efforts to the less fortunate.

They are children of the art class of Jeanne Byrd, taken over by the art class of her mother, Mrs. Paul Schaefer, aged 84, and Mrs. Don Johnson and daughter, Lisa, aged 10, of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. The students made decorations including mobiles, center pieces for dining table and buffet, flat paste of wall decorations and a large flat hanging Christmas tree.

Completed for trimmings for the children's rehabilitation center of the Herman Hooper hospital. These efforts were to assist in the project of the Karpa Kappa Gamma, with Mrs. Peter W. Decker as Birmingham chairman. Mrs. H. P. Halls and Mrs. James Eason worked with Mrs. Schaefer in bringing the decorations Friday.
