Christmas carols will conclude the evening's entertainment.

Now residing at 1726 Graefield road are Mrs. Elizabeth Bieman and her two children, 7½ year old Chris and 5 year old Christine. Mrs. Bieman attended Hillsdale College, Hillsdale, Mich. and Michigan State Normal. She is first grade teacher at Quarten school and her sorority is Chi Omega.

Mr. and Mrs. David Bordinat of Graefield road announce the arrival of their second son, Christopher David, at Beaumont hospital on Oct. 31. The baby's older brother is 3 year old Jeffrey.

BROWNIES 386
Troop 386, comprised of two groups of eight Brownies each, under the leadership of Mrs. Norman H. Schairer and Mrs. M. Craig Miller, has been spending the past few weeks making Christmas gifts for children at the Lutheran Institute for the Deaf in Detroit.

Mrs. Schairer's group made soft cloth dolls while Mrs. Miller's group made doll tea sets of fringed napkins and table cloths. On Thursday, Dec. 8, both groups made a trip to the Institute to present the gifts. They were taken on a very educational and informative tour of the Institute by the school principal, Mr. Bellhorn, which include the boys' and girls' dormitories, the class rooms, the chapel, the playrooms and the cafeteria.

In addition to their gift making, the Brownies were busily rehearsing Christmas carols for their part in the Scout Song Festival which was held on Tuesday, Dec. 13, at Pembroke School. Taking part in the festival were all Girl Scouts and Brownies in the Pontiac school area.

On Monday, Dec. 5th, Mrs. Miller and her assistant Mrs. Horace S. Maynard entertained all members of the troop at a Christmas tea at the Maynard home.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Pfuke of Pembroke road will leave Dec. 20 for St. Petersburg, Fla. where they will spend Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pfuke and his sister, Miss Eleanor Pfuke. He is driving and expects to spend a month motoring around Florida and visiting friends in Fort Lauderdale and Miami.

Mr. and Mrs. LeGrande E. Terry of Trawton Manor have had their guest for the past week Mrs. Terry's aunt, Mrs. Mattie Drummond, of Houston, Texas. On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Terry entertained at a tea in her honor.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Distler of Graefield road entertained at a cocktail party and open house at their new home Sunday afternoon, Dec. 11. Twelve couples attended the affair.

The Distlers and their seven-year-old daughter Deborah, arrived home Dec. 23 to spend Christmas with Mrs. Distler's sister in Albany, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Friesner, former residents of 1613 Graefield road, moved to their new home Dec. 10 at 1465 Stanley Blvd.

Residents Await Students Home for Christmas Holiday

For many families Christmas centers around hearth and home and residents of the village are no exception. Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Green of Hupp Cross road anxiously await the Christmas holidays in anticipation of their two sons' return from College.

Doug who is in his second year at the University of Colorado, will be returning Dec. 16. Howie is returning home Dec. 21 from Dartmouth, where he is in his first year of medicine.

Stepping off the train on the sixteenth, he will be Susanne Shanklin of Hamilton road. She will be returning from Mt. Holyoke to spend the vacation with her parents.

Mrs. William Shelby of Woodstock, Ontario is visiting at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Chisholm of Overhill road. Mrs. Shelby arrived in time to help celebrate her granddaughter's sixth birthday and will remain until after the Christmas holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bratton of Woodale Court entertained at a cocktail party for their annual dance given by the Gullion Club of Pontiac. The event took place last evening at the Birmingham Country Club. The Brattons' guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Davidson and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bird of Pontiac; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sampson of Watkins Lake and Mr. and Mrs. Gil Wilson of Bloomfield Hills.

Mrs. L. I. Woolson of Glenary is in New York visiting her daughter and son-in-law and new grandson.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Terry of Half Moon drive have been on a trip for the last ten days that has taken them to Boston and New York.

BROWNIES 761
Last Monday afternoon Brownie Troop 764 of Brookside met at the home of Mrs. Louis Meier of Northwood, in Houston, Texas. The troop consisted of 12 girls as troop members.

Those participating in the event were: Milla Lewand, Betty Britner, Katy Lovett, Winn Lyon, Debbie Noville, Adriane Andrea, Susan Hall, Margie Botterbach, Mary Weir, Susan Meier and Vicky Joy.

Mrs. Corwin and Mrs. Charles Weir are leader and co-leader while Mrs. Britner and Mrs. Lyon are on the troop committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Reid Hall will celebrate Christmas with a family gathering at the home of Mrs. Hall's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kraus of Groove Pointe. The senior Kraus will be traveling to California in February to spend some time with another daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Coker, who will be remembered by former Detroiters. The foursome then plan to vacation in Hawaii.

YOUNGER SET
Dick Griffith entertained a group of teenagers in his home on Pine street evening recently. Those who enjoyed charades, cards and an evening of dancing were, Judy Marston, Judy Hardin, Don Helstrom, Carla Foster, Brian Deans, Barbara Bond and Earl Bowen. Norrene Shevek of Bay City was Dick's out-of-town date for the Pic-Ski in moon held at the Birmingham high last Saturday evening.

Dance in U of M Ballet Program
Mary Eckfeld, E. Long Lake road, Bloomfield Hills; Helen Jane Jenson, Telegraph road, Bloomfield, and Marlene Crawford, W. Brown, Birmingham, participated in the program when the University of Michigan Modern Dance and Ballet clubs presented their combined concert Sunday.

Miss Eckfeld, a freshman in the literary college, performed in modern dance interpretations, entitled "Love and Adoration" and "Anticipation." Miss Jenson, a freshman in dental hygiene, also danced in "Love and Adoration." Miss Crawford, a sophomore in the literary college, appeared in a modern dance, "Joy," and "Classical Ballet—1830."

Sang in Yule Opera
Marjorie Gagnon, Cedar avenue, Birmingham, sang with the chorus of Detroit's Mercy College Masque Guild production of "Amahl and the Night Visitors," last Saturday and Sunday.
