Winter Sports Set In Michigan

Twenty-two special events during January, February and March will highlight Michigan's coming winter sports season, according to the State Tourist Council.

"This event-tudded calendar is further evidence that winter sports in Michigan are a significant part of the state's year-round tourist industry," asserted Robert J. Furlong, Council Executive Secretary.

"COMBINED with the increased and improved facilities at more than 40 winter sports centers, it places Michigan in the first rank among the nation's winter play grounds," Furlong added.

To illustrate his point Furlong cited the variety and extent of the special winter celebrations. Included on the calendar are nine winter carnivals and ice-fishing festivals, eight downhill and slalom ski races, two ski-jumping tournaments, two speed skating championships and an ice revue.

All of Michigan's principal winter sports areas are represented in the list, the tourist official added.

First Adult Recreation Program Starts Jan. 10

Birmingham's adult recreation program will get underway Tuesday night, Jan. 10 at the Birmingham high school and continue each Tuesday evening until spring.

Everyone is invited to attend the recreation program which is the first to be sponsored by the recreation board. Group interest in the various sports will determine the nightly schedule which will be run on an experimental basis for the first few weeks.

The spacious high school gymnasium is the space for a basketball game on the regulation floor, five badminton games, two volleyball games and five tennis games all at the same time.

The gymnastics room and weight-lifting facilities will also be available. All equipment will be furnished.

Both men and women are invited to attend and will be provided locker and shower facilities but should bring their own towel and lock.

TWO OTHER recreation programs will also get underway in hold each Saturday morning from 9:30 to 11:30. The schools are: Torry, Adams, Barnum, Quorton, Pembroke, Baldwin, Pierce and Birmingham high school.

On the same morning, beginners' swimming classes for boys and girls will start at Barnum school. This provides an excellent opportunity for parents to provide their children with swimming lessons.

Separate classes will be held for boys and girls every Saturday morning 9 p.m. until noon. You may register children for swimming classes by calling Frank Whitney's office in the board of education building.
