Stage Set For New Shows By Puppeteers

The newest play ready for action by the Birmingham Puppeteers is "Jack-in-the-Beanstalk," and to date has two performances scheduled. The two teams operating the show and pulling the strings at Cranbrook Nursery School on Dec. 15 and 16 will be Mrs. Everett Walsh with Mrs. D. H. Burgess and Mrs. E. Hewitt with Mrs. A. Leslie Shaefer.

Each year the group plans new shows and hours are spent composing the characters. Responsible for the construction of the puppets is Mary Ryan. Helping her were Mrs. James Scribner, who supervised the making of the bodies and controls and Mrs. E. M. Keith, who headed the painting. The script was written by Mrs. Walsh and the backdrops were done by Fran Patton.

The shows are available for private parties and charitable organizations, the latter ones done free.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.
