BIRMINGHAM Congregational church school members recondition toys for youngsters from Oakland County Children's home. Hard at work are Chucky Brooks, 8, Owen DuVall, 10, and Tom Brooks, 10.

Santa Workshop Prepares Toys and Favors

Young Santa's assistants were busy at work at the recent "Christmas Workshop" which operated a North Pole branch in Birmingham. Congregational church school members reconditioned toys for youngsters from Oakland County Children's home whom they will entertain this Saturday.

On a Saturday afternoon church school children and mothers prepared gifts and party favors for 30 youngsters from Oakland County Children's home whom they will entertain this Saturday.

Junior high students took over a table, packed with toys, reading reconditioning. Mrs. Dalton Lamb, assistant superintendent of the home, supervised adults in revision of repairs, while her laughter, Loda, and David Lind, 10, assisted with paint brushes.

Redeemer Lutheran Receives 41 Into Membership

AT A SEWING table where dolls were christened in French with babies, Mrs. Howard Sumner and daughter Sharon, assisted in the revision of repairs, while her laughter, Loda, and David Lind, 10, assisted with paint brushes.

By adult confirmation and letter of transfer, 41 communicants were received into the membership of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer last Sunday.

New communicants are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Aude, Miss Bonnie Bates, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Brower, Mrs. Dan Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Gehala, Mr. and Mrs. John Davis, and Mrs. Marion Fitzsimmons.

MRS. JACK THATCHER and son, Tom, 8, were cutting and putting paper angels for children preparing paper Christmas trees to decorate additional nut cracker.

Colorful miniature pinatas were being made of foil paper by the young workers at a table supervised by Mrs. Bradford A. Hixon and Mrs. Lester E. Olmstead.

Saturday's party hosts and hostesses will remove the pinatas, stuffed with candy and gum, from their guests.

MRS. EDWARD GIBSON was assisted by Mrs. Helen G. Galt, Mrs. E. K. and David, 2, who worked with a group of five boys making paper angels for the tree. Mrs. Ralph Morgan was coordinator of the workshop's paper chain department.

When congregational church school members held their party Saturday at 3:30 p.m. at the church, their guests will range in age from 2 years to junior-high level.

Party guests will hit four Christmas pinatas and the popcorn spill-out, play games representing Christmas traditions from other lands, and see a movie, "The Spirit of Christmas."
