

Franklin Students Present Christmas Program Monday

FRANKLIN — All students of Franklin school will join in a Christmas program to be presented to their parents starting at 7:30 p.m. Monday night, Dec. 19, in the multi-purpose room at the school. The program opens with a number of Christmas carols sung by the school choir, under the direction of Phyllis Gardner, vocal music teacher, and instrumental numbers by the instrumental music students of Maurice Pelton. The play "Christmas Eve at Santa's Toy Shop" is presented by students from the kindergarten through the sixth grade, will conclude the evening's efforts. It is directed by Sylvia Morris, the kindergarten teacher, assisted by Beth Egbert, third grade teacher; Mary Kopus, first grade teacher, and fifth grade teacher, Louise Clarke. School will be dismissed for the Christmas vacation at the close of school on Wednesday, Dec. 19. Classes resume Tuesday, Jan. 2.

Ticket Man After Crash Injures Two

W. H. M. TWP. — Two persons were treated at Pontiac General hospital Sunday after the cars in which they were riding collided at Middlefield and W. Maple roads. Treated for multiple face cuts were Mrs. Helen Twp, 26, of Walnut Lake, and Mrs. Miriam McAlpine, 38, of Milford, for shoulder injuries. Township police ticketed Kenneth J. Twp, 24, for passing across a yellow line. He is an eastbound driver. One car driven by Wilbur McAlpine, 60, in the opposite direction collided. A car driven by John P. Shamahan, 25, of Royal Oak, was also struck. Police said. The drivers were not injured.

New Brownie Troop Formed in Lathrup

LATHRUP — Fourteen proud little Brownies received their pins and banners Monday to form new Troop 766 under the leadership of Mrs. Robert DeLand and Mrs. B. H. Ackles, Jr. The initiators took place in Lathrup school and was followed by a tea for the girls and their mothers.

New Brownies are Julie Adams, Jackie Anderson, Julie Culp, Susan Fuller, Virginia Herrick, Sheila Krippendorf, Sara Mastland, Kathy Ann Moss, Mary Osborne, Marilyn Sarafian, Janet Schisley, Loreta Stewart, Sharon Eshman and Kathleen Whiting.

Chief — What did you do there, play brides?

EARLY TABULATIONS by (left to right) Mrs. Fannie Adams, township clerk; Mrs. Thomas Yoki, deputy clerk, and Mrs. Florence Thomas, office employee, started shortly after 8 p.m. By 9 p.m. the election outcome was known. James Molnar, 25582 Rouge court, an early arrival, watches the figuring.

MRS. MAXINE B. MARTIN, 21840 Edgemoor, steps from voting booth after registering her opinion on Southfield's charter. Hard-working election officials, like those (above) of Precinct 10, guided 7,104 voters through the mechanics of voting.

Franklin Village

ANGELA DADSON MA 6-2441

The Wilfred Smiths will hold their annual open house, at their home on Garden Way, from 4 o'clock on Sunday afternoon, Dec. 19. Their 20 guests all will be from Franklin. The Smiths' son John Cushing, a student at pilot stationed at Beardsley AFB, is expected home Dec. 26. He will return to the base Jan. 2. Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Quint were hosts to 40 guests at open house held at their place on Colony Hill road last Saturday night. The Arthur Hatfield home on Wellington road will be open to various friends this coming Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Whiting will hold an open house for their neighbors on Christmas Eve, at their Wing Lake road home. Daughter Mary Kay, a student at St. Mary's, Notre Dame, will arrive home on the 20th to start her holiday vacation. Mrs. Whiting was honored at a surprise birthday party arranged by her husband last Saturday night. The affair started with a cocktail party at home, with dinner at the Fox and Hounds. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jones, of Franklin, and the Ed Klapproths, and the Bill Reibys, of Birmingham.

December's Children, Carol Emmerling, 11 on Saturday the 10th, celebrated with a party at her home on Woodside court, with friends from the sixth grade at Franklin school as her guests. The busy Spent celebrated her sixth birthday last Wednesday with friends from the neighborhood coming on the celebration at her home on Garden Way. Janet Caskey, who will be six Dec. 30, will mark the occasion with a party at the Caskey home on Appletree Lane.

Mrs. Steve Kowalski and Mrs. John Worley, a student at John Carroll Union at Cleveland, will join his parents, the Eide Warleys, 13-Mile road, for the Yuletide holidays.

Home for the holidays, from Dennison college at Granville, Ohio, will be Don Kipp, son of the Dunlap Kipp of Valley Spring road. Guests of the Kipp for Christmas dinner will be Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stigmund of Groves Pointe.
