

How often, when one has engaged in heated argument with another, one leads to enlarge upon the real or imagined wrong done to him in such argument. That is when self-pity often to go to and self-pity always in an enemy.

School Children Ready Christmas Productions

Birmingham area school students are busy with plans for Christmas programs to be held during the final days before vacation.

At BALDWIN school, fourth through sixth graders will present a play, "Book of Ecclesiastes," to PTA members at 8 p.m. Dec. 19 in the school gymnasium.

Miss Katherine Puff is directing the production, with cast made up of David Naylor, Sandy Kane, Sharon Wilson, Kitty Taylor, Larry Warrilow, Tom Lindow and Sue Lyndell.

Second and third year instrumentalists under the direction of Harold Jones will play Christmas music.

Kindergarten through third grade children will present an orchestra, "The Toys That Had to Wait," at 2:15 Dec. 20.

Cast includes Chris Porter, Barbara Watson, Sherry Stolzberg, Ellen Todd, Carol Henderson, Nancy Hoyle, Barbara Galloway, Linda Wilson and Barbara Cooke.

part scholars will be Arlene Scamney, Geraldine Adams and Jacqueline Horn.

FRIDAY school parents will be entertained by fourth, fifth and sixth grade students at the school at 8 p.m. Monday, Dec. 19.

The program will feature Christmas in other lands, with Mexican songs and dances by Miss Jane Ferguson's fourth graders, and a French Christmas presented by fourth grade pupils of Mrs. Charlotte Cook and Miss Barbara Watson.

Miss Jane Alvey and Mrs. Mary Kramer are rehearsing their fifth graders for "Sweden," and Mrs. Leola Hester and Mr. Wilfred Hulse are reading German Yule customs. Glee club and orchestra will also participate.

At BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE school, 520 kindergarten through third grade children will join in a program at the school on Friday, Dec. 16, at 8 p.m.

The vocal presentation is under the direction of Miss Alma Fassbender, while Harold Jones directs band and orchestra.

A boys' quartet composed of Jack Zulack, Dave Van Lee, Jan Giboney and Bob Dickinson will be featured.

Yule Activities Set at Kingswood

VAUGHAN elementary school in Bloomfield Hills will celebrate with a Carol Sing on Friday, Dec. 16. First grade carolers will begin the professional at 9:40 a.m., and there will be continuous singing of carols through the halls until dismissal time.

Saturday afternoon, is the date for about fifty children from the Oakland county area. Each year the girls at Kingswood have dressed dolls for the occasion, and in advance of presentation of the dolls to the children at the party, a committee composed of Mrs. Alicia Smith, Baptist Children's Home, Mrs. Thorne will award prizes for the two best dressed dolls. After the party, remaining dolls will be distributed to several metropolitan area institutions, including Methodist Children's Home. The entire glee club, under the direction of Mrs. Lois Chapman, will present several selections from Charlie Jones, a Christmas carolers and several other numbers.

those honest, but ineffectual souls who have been unable to grasp the fact so clearly outlined in our Christmas circular—"To really hear the Angel's Song your breathless rushing should be done early!"—we feel it necessary to list in the simplest fashion the useful and delightful gifts with which to solve your problems.

The best technique is to . . .

- a. Leave your name list home.
- b. Procure a number of these very charming, adequate gifts.
- c. Take them home and FIT them into your list.
- d. Anything that doesn't fit your list will make a splendid addition to your own hailwreck.

LIST OF SOLVENTS

1. TRUG BASKET. . . The word "trug" is not in our dictionary but it is a delightful sounding word. It in no way affects the handsomeness of the basket which has many uses of which we are making a list as we find out about them.

2. a. OPPORTUNITY NO. 1

b. OPPORTUNITY NO. 2

These two amazing opportunities come to us in large cardboard boxes. As we gathered around to see what they might be, we were dumfounded to discover that in OP. NO. 2 were TV PLANTER SPECIALS and in OP. NO. 1 were PHLODENDRON TOTEM SPECIALS. . . and further amazed to learn that the retail value (which we hope to get) of these OPS is only $1.45 for the NO. 1 and curiously, only $1.95 for the NO. 2. Incidentally, the NO. 1's are 4" pots containing 6 Philodendron Coratam attached to a 14-inch CYPRESS Pole. The NO. 2's are also 4" pots containing 4 large size assorted foliage plants. (NO cypress poles).

3. TABLES— with seats, without seats, for weddings, for picnics, for cards, for parties, for gifts, for sale.

4. BIRD FEEDERS—We have the finest assortment on Brownell Street. You probably don't realize what a splendid gift this would be for a queer bird.

5. LOG STAND—And a log carrier to carry logs to the log stand. A good deal for a loggerhead.

6. CAPE HORN LIGHTER—The only competitor for the Cape Cod Lighter—the South against the North again. However, with this C. Horn job you don't get a thing on your fingers or the hearth.

7. INTERESTING COMBINATIONS

- a. Christmas dog stockings and cat stockings
- b. Haeger pottery and hatchets
- c. Sizzle Platter and fertilizer spreader
- d. Meat tongs and Dog Figurines
- e. Christmas Tree Stands and Rind-Lite Cubes
- f. Garden Books and rubbish burners
- g. Chopping block and Week-End-Willies
- h. Ice Buckets and asbestos gloves
- i. Bird baths and Rat poison
- j. Patio lights and patio blocks (aha!)
- k. Strawberry jar and meat whacker
- l. Croquet set and grass seed
- m. Tulip bulbs (1c each) and pickaxe
- n. Electric trimmer and
