THE SPIRIT OF CHRISTMAS

If I were to write a Christmas card, it would not just tritely say "Merry Christmas". Nor would it be for only one day. Neither would I send it to just a favored few. But to all the world; heathen, Christian and Jew. To the hungry, barefooted orphans of war. The sick, the aged and the desperately poor. I would write "God bless you with love and cheer. On this and every day throughout the year!" And then—ere laying down my pen: "On earth peace, good will toward men."
