Bristol's Return Means $1000 For Camp Oakland

If a lost Brittany spaniel is recovered, three children and at least four adults will be happy, and Camp Oakland for underprivileged boys near Clarkston will be $1,000 richer.

It all began Dec. 8 when a Brittany spaniel named "Bristol" broke his harness and got away from the running line which kept him in the Dean Beier's back yard on Dorchester. Bristol has yet to be recovered and the three Beier children are grieving over the loss of their dog.

Grandpa Otto Beier, who first gave Bristol to his grandchildren is as anxious as the children for Bristol's return and has offered a $25 reward to anyone who can give information leading to the recovery of Bristol with his proper family.

And as a special lure, Grandpa Beier has set aside a tree all made out for Camp Oakland for underprivileged boys of Oakland County.

Bristol is a medium-sized dog with an orange and white, silky coat. He is not a pure bred Irish setter, but he has the same sort of build. Only half-grown, Bristol is a friendly pup, hadn't learned to shun anyone and will follow any friendly stranger.

A chain reaction will go into effect if anyone knows the whereabouts of Bristol and will call the Dean Beier family at MI 4-4723. The family will welcome Bristol back, the finder will collect his reward and Camp Oakland will turn the $1,000 check over to Camp Oakland.

Suggests City Should Accept Easement Sewers

Should the city assume responsibility for old private easement sewers?

City Commissioner Dean Beier asked that question this week—and Birmingham City Manager D. E. Egbert said it might be advisable for us to accept.

However, commissioners withheld any decision until further exploration of a sewer situation affecting the property of Mrs. Carl E. Heinecke, 552 Bronkhyde.

SHE CONTENDS she has had her sewer connection flooded, and the basement flooding trouble dates from a sewer in the alley. Commissioners asked her to make some effort to prove the obstruction is off her property. If so, the city will dig down and try to locate the trouble.

Commissioner Barber: "I think it may be time for the city to assume responsibility for all these old easement sewers. When a resident today has made an effort to prove he feels he already has bought good sewer facilities."

Funds Appropriated For City Employee Recognition Pins

As a part of the city's employee service recognition program, 122 more service pins are being ordered by Dana Whitman, Jr., assistant city manager.

The Birmingham city commission Monday night approved the expenditure of $585 to cover the cost of a three-year supply of the 10-karat gold employee awards.

A new design has been designed for the perpetual program, which will be launched in February, 1956.

R. L. Polk Company Canvassing Area

R. L. Polk Co. is currently working on a Birmingham City directory from offices in the Municipal building.

Paul Nixon of the R. L. Polk Co. said that canvassers will call on all residents and business places of the greater Birmingham area during the next six weeks.

"All canvassers will carry proper identification," Nixon said.
