Now, Old Santa Claus

Has Seen Everything! Out of the hundreds of letters Santa Clai

Out of the hundreds of letter's Santa Clade' has received from children in and around Birmingham, one completely amazed old Santa. In many years of reading notes from boys and girls, Santa has never seen anything quite like the one Suzanne Mayer penciled this week. Suzanne apparently, gave herself serious self-analysis and cyme up with a dim view of her Christmas day.

There is quite likely to be a happy ending to this tale, however, since Santa tells us he is sufmost certain Sue was unduly hard on herself. He has his number one elf-out recheking Mas Suzanne right now.

Here is Sue's amazing letter:

Dear Santa—I have been a bad girl this year so don't want you to give me any presents. I want you to give the presents that you were going to give me to the poor people. I have been so bad that I don't deserve a thing.

WILD LIFE

The snow has covered the ground over night. The birds and squirrels are no longer in sight, they seek a refuge, but where do they go, then the trees and the ground are covered with snow?

It's a marvel to me how they manage to live. When the trees and the ground have nothing to give.

They accomplish it somehow and we must admit We're helping a little if we do our bit.

So we scatter some crumbs and grain on the show And in a few moments they appear in a row, We know they have some place to keep them alive To feed our wild friends we surely must strive.
