FOR THE NEXT TWO WEEKS

The Birmingham Eccentric's work will also be one day short as the Christmas and New Year's holidays are observed on Monday.

We'd appreciate your assistance in getting copy in early for these next two issues.

BHS Team Debates

The Birmingham debate team split two decisions recently, one with Berkeley and one with Highland Park.

Winning both weeks was the affirmative team of Jerry Rogers and Gary Reynolds. The defeated negative side consisted of Joyce Kerley and George Ina.

Pupils Write, Produce Own Play at Wing Lake

Wing Lake school children not only danced, acted and sang the roles in "The Nutcracker Suite" last week, but also wrote appropriate words to fit the Tschairowsky music, worked out their own choreography, and (with mothers' help) made their costumes.

The adaptation of the fairy tale was presented at the school as the children's Christmas program for their parents.

Mr. William McGuire, sixth grade pupils wrote the play itself, prepared the scenery, and performed in "The Miniature Overture".

SIXTH GRADERS Susan Hertz, for an Evelyn LeZka acted as stage and scenic director.

Each of the homeroom groups wrote appropriate words for the music to which they performed.

Mrs. Lucille Hinkley's first grade class "The Dance of the Candy Fairy" Mrs. Geraldine Hayne's first and second combined class "The Dance of the Good Fairy" and Mrs. Beverly Wood's second grader performed the music.

THIRD GRADERS, under direction of Mrs. Geneva Buchanan gave "The Arab Dance", and under
