

Students To See Europe Next Summer On Hubbard Tour

Plans for a week tour of Europe for college students are being made by E. A. Hubbard, Birmingham high school instructor who directs the seniors' annual Washington trip.

Hubbard arranged first class hotel accommodations for a group of 20 and started tour methods when he visited Europe last summer. His itinerary includes four days each in London and Paris, three days in Rome, and visits to Stratford-on-Avon, the Black Forest, Versailles, Amsterdam, and Brussels.

The group will sail from Montreal June 30 on the S. S. Maasdam, returning to New York August 20 aboard the Holland American Lines' S. S. Seven Seas.

Present at Barbara Taylor's slumber party Friday night were Judy Mitchell, Barbara Bran, Linda LaMarre, Nancy Maxwell and Jan Miller.

Also present were Ron Sandberg, Sharon Bessell, Roy Severs, Doug Goodfellow, Bill Bole, Barbara Shinnick, Jean Beardon, Sue Savage, Bill Apple, Jane Lindley, Bob Larson, Ethel Fortin and Larry's date Lynn Coker.

Some of the girls sipping punch at the home of Carol Green were Barbara Green, Sue Schachter, Jennifer Schwarz, Janet Fay, Nettie LeMessurier, Ruthann Hoffman, Ann Ope, Gay Grosser, Pat Hogan, Carol Bain, Julie Hoover, Beverly Scheer, Barbara Herbert, Dolores Schrey, Lynda Corkery and Judy Newberg.

Among those having parties during vacation will be Barbara Davis, Lynn Roberts, Kathy Garrett, Ann DeHart and Patty Harman.

Nick Gilbert and Charles Fredrickson traveled East for the weekend recently to visit Williams, Princeton and other colleges.

Judy Buchanan and Barbara Simon spent the weekend at Michigan recently as guests of Beverly Negri.

Lee Carlines recently attended the Phi Delta Theta pledge formal at the University of Michigan with alum Jim Price.

AFS Considers 4 BHS Students For Exchange

A chance to apply for a six weeks stay with a foreign family may be awarded by the American Field Service to four Birmingham high school students.

Names and applications of Ken Hogan, Jay Severs, Sue Taber and Don Tinsler will be submitted to the AFS center in New York for final decision.

Of 28 students interviewed, the four were chosen on the basis of personal appearance, maturity, attitudes, social graces, and the student's own objectives.

PRESENT IN Birmingham high school of two foreign exchange students, Margaret Davis, New Zealand, and Edward Dorfmann, Austria, made local students eligible for consideration as representatives of the United States to live with foreign families during the summer of 1956.

Students finally selected for the summer program will leave the city in late August and return in early September.

The purpose of the exchange program is to promote better understanding and friendship among the nations of the world.

Birds of Paradise Cut LP Recording

Led by Noel Stookey, a '55 alumnaus of Birmingham high school, is a rhythm and blues organization called the Birds of Paradise. Recently the group cut a 33 1/3 long play record which is being sold in the Birmingham area.

Included in the album are four ballads and five up-tempo songs. Of these nine songs, five are originals written by Noel Stookey. The album title, "The Birds of Paradise," and the flip side carries the history of the Birds. The group is made up of Noel Stookey, Don Frazer, Tom Halsted, Pete Kass, Howard Leavenworth, and Jim Leach.

THE RECORD may be purchased through Birmingham high school in care of Club FHS for $2.00.

A few engagements that will keep the Birds busy over the holidays are a third possible television engagement, entertainment with a dance and a private party.

Southfield High-Notes

Members of Southfield's Student Council were happy to see their food baskets brimming over on Monday morning and voted funds to purchase turkeys for delivery to needy families with the canned goods. The baskets will be delivered Friday morning by Eric Leighton, Sue Bishop, Margaret Gray, Dave Lloyd, and Elaine Hunsicker.

Southfield's Spanish club held its annual Christmas party Dec. 20. After celebrating with Mexican hot chocolate and the traditional Mexican pinata, the group delivered stuffed animals they had made to 200 and 3-year-olds at Sarah Fisher home.

The French club will hold its Christmas party tonight at the home of Barbara Reed. They plan an evening of French caroling, a game of charades in French, and the girls have planned games and French pastries for dessert.

BHS Senior Ann Gardner Chosen Miss DAR

Selected by seniors and teachers at Birmingham high school as 1955 recipient of the DAR good citizenship award is Ann Gardner, popular senior.

Ann will compete with other award winners for a $100 bond at the DAR annual state conference. The Daughters of the American Revolution present the award to the senior girl who best meets the qualifications of dependability, service, leadership and patriotism.

ANN IS editor of the yearbook, secretary of the Senate and chairman of capital issues.

Ann is also a member of the Student Congress, Pep club and National Honor society and was vice president of her junior class.

Other nominees for this highest citizenship award were Ais Atwood, Helen Tolwell, Judy Collins, Ruth Heller, Carol Orr, Janet Palmer, Nancy Skinner and Virginia Walter.

"Is it true that it cost $100 to have your family tree looked up?" "Well, not exactly. I paid $5 to have it looked up, and $95 to have it hushed up."

Adams Has Sing

Elementary children of Adams school gathered in the auditorium on the afternoon of Dec. 21 to sing Christmas songs, under the direction of Mrs. Dorothy Pelton.

★ Smile A Minute

A newly-married couple were entertaining and among the guests was one whose conduct was rather brilliant. At supper he held up a fork a piece of meat which had been served him, and in a vein of intended humor, remarked, "Is this pie?"

"To which end of the fork do you refer?" asked a quiet looking man sitting at the other end of the table.
