

Students Home For Holidays

Quite a few students are in town with their families over the Christmas holiday season.

Two University of Vermont freshmen here from Burlington, Vt., over their holiday recess are Molly A. Olson, daughter of the Warren T. Olsons, Madison street, and John W. Shy, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Willard A. Shy, Red River road.

Spending the Christmas vacation with their parents are Nancy Kay Bears, daughter of the Mark H. Bears, Hawthorne road; Martha McDonald, daughter of the Clifford J. McDonalds, Cranbrook road, and Barbara Underhill, daughter of the Earl A. Underhills, also of Cranbrook road. The girls are students at Penn Hall Junior college and preparatory school, Chambersburg, Pa.

JANE M. Bertling has arrived at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee A. Bertling, Ardmore drive, from Mary A. Burnham school, Northampton, Mass., for the holidays.

Among those home for the festivities from Riverside Military academy, Gainesville, Ga. are Ronald A. Rogers, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Irvin A. Rogers of Ardmore drive, and Lt. Jasper W. Wellman, nephew of J. H. Karlet, Beach road.

Dave Wentworth, a sophomore at Shattuck school, Faribault, Minn., is also Christmas vacationing here with his parents, the H. A. Wentworths of Covington road, Bloomfield Twp.

New Teachers' Club

Janet King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William King, Bingham lane, Birmingham, is a member of the newly formed Future Teachers club on the campus at Hillsdale college, Hillsdale, Mich.

Household goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Engaged to Wed Easterner

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Colbert, of Martel drive, Bloomfield Hills, announce the engagement of their daughter, Sarah to A. Grant Nobel, Jr., son of the Reverend and Mrs. A. Grant Noble, Williamstown, Mass.

Sarah is a student at Bennington college in Vermont. Her father is president of Chrysler Corporation.

Her fiancé, a graduate of Kent Preparatory school, attended Williams college, then served four years in the U. S. Marine corps. Now a senior at Williams, he plans to enter medical school next fall.

Mr. Nobel's father is rector of St. John's church at Williamstown and was formerly Williams college chaplain, as well as chaplain to Episcopal students at Yale university.

JUNIOR LEAGUE members are wicking paint brushes, wall paper scrapers, mops and scrub brushes in preparation for the League's Child Guidance Clinic opening on Jan. 30. Washing the ceiling is Mrs. Charles Wilson, Jr., while Mrs. John Hopcock works the patching plaster to the right consistency.

JUNIOR LEAGUERS Mrs. James Joyce polishes the new glass door, separating two doctors' rooms in the future clinic at 300 East Maple while Mrs. Steele Sellers energetically uses the mop. Many members are working on the clinic project and soon will have the decorating completed.

PSYCHOLOGY IN A DINNER JACKET

HAND TAILORED BY Lebow

This hand-tailored shawl collar dinner jacket is good psychology, good tailoring, good looking. When you wear it on a formal occasion, it's good psychology for you to know that no one present is better dressed. The good tailoring is a matter of record. The eighty-seven hand operations Lebow craftsmen put into it are reflected in what you get out of it: Satisfaction. The good looks are also a matter of record. We invite you to put on a Lebow and look in a mirror. See the flattering midnight blue tone, the subdued gleam of the satin lapel, the refinement of superior tailoring. Feel the comfort of the tropical weight. And remember the Lebow label. It's good psychology.
