

Epsilons Exchange Grab Bag Gifts

Epsilon Epsilon chapter of Mrs. Bernard Dodd and Mrs. Lambda Tau Delta Society had a Christmas party and meeting at the home of Mrs. Lee Haines of Rosgewood, Southfield township. Their gift exchange was in the form of grab bag presents.

"Mamma, what a second-story man!"

"Your father is one, dear. If I don't believe his first story he's attending from Birmingham always has another one ready."

Christmas Dance

Highway Death Toll for Year Nearing 2,000

It now appears almost certain that more than 2,000 persons will lose their lives in Michigan traffic in 1955.

This probability was borne out when the State Police monthly traffic accident report revealed that 204 persons were killed during October, raising the death toll to 1,514 for the first 10 months of 1955.

The October toll exceeded 200 for the second month this year and was up 37, or 22 per cent, over October 1954.

of this year total 49,060 and reported accidents 154,571. These figures represent increases of nine and five per cent, respectively, over the same period of 1954. Deaths in rural areas were up 15 per cent while urban deaths were down seven per cent.

MILEAGE traveled the first nine months of this year, the latest figure available, was 22.1 billion, an increase of nearly nine per cent over 20.3 billion in the same period last year.

The death rate of 64 per 100 million miles of travel was up two per cent.
