Abandoned Dog

To the Editors:—Friday night Dec. 2, our little dog was out having his evening run, when along comes a man in a car and picked Bucko up and took him home.

After keeping him several days they turned him in to the dog pound, and if it was not for Mrs. Earl B. Koehler, of 275 E. Maple, and Mrs. Gladys Ward of 619 Frank, whose untiring efforts are a return lost pets to their owners, our little dog would not be with us today.

The name Michigan comes from the Indian word Mishigamaw, meaning "Great Water."
