Pebr Denton Anderson claimed Gail Louise Kothmann as his bride in a five o'clock ceremony Tuesday in St. John's Episcopal church, Boulder, Colo. The Rev. A. Balfour Patterson officiated before members of the immediate families.

Gail is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wesley Kothmann of Fort McKavitt, Texas. Her husband's parents are the Denton Andersons of Lone Pine road, Bloomfield Hills.

The bride chose an oyster white waist-length frock of dull brocade fashioned with princess lines and long tight sleeves. Her hat was of matching satin and she carried a spray of white orchids.

BARRELL Jane Kothmann of San Angelo, Texas, was maid of honor and her only attendant in a light blue wool dress with pearl trim and a matching satin hat. She carried Rome Glory roses.

John Alton Anderson, II, of Lone Pine road, was his brother's best man.

Mrs. Kothmann wore a blue gray pearl de soie ensemble with matching accessories and butterfly orchids. Her mother wore a pale gray wool and white satin hat and had a green spray of orchids.

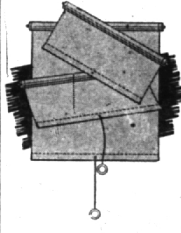

After a skiing trip to Alta, Utah, and Aspen, Colo., the couple will make their home in Boulder, Colo., for the opening of the University of Colorado.
