Honor Two Local Doctors at St. Joe Medical Staff Meet

Two area doctors gained recognition this week during the annual St. Joseph Mercy Hospital medical staff meeting, one for past service and the other for service yet to be undertaken as staff president.

Sister Mary William, hospital administrator, presided at the Carlton A. Smith of Grand rapid, Bloomfield Hills, this year's staff president, with a laudatory address for "outstanding leadership and achievements in staff functions during the past year."

Dr. Robert E. Wessels, 2132 Tottenham, Bloomfield township, was chosen president-elect of the medical staff at the same meeting. He takes office in 1957.

Dr. John M. Mackley of Pontiac, took office as president, replacing Dr. Smith.

Secretary and treasurer for the coming year is Dr. Charles L. Bowers of Pontiac.
