Birmingham Theatre To Rock with Jazz Dec. 29

Catering to the youth of the Birmingham-Bloomfield area, the Birmingham Lions club is sponsoring a jazz concert at Birmingham theatre Thursday, December 29.

An afternoon and evening performance by Baron Lea and his orchestra will be given.

The program also will feature the Don Juan Quartette and Columbia recording artist, Yachia Spivey. Clarence Paul, popular singer of modern music, also will appear.

THE BARON LEA orchestra is a group of hybrid artists, most of whom have had considerable success as instrumentalists in leading name bands. Baron Lea himself has gained a reputation as an arranger for such bands as Lonnie Hampton, Count Basie, Benny Carter and Jazz Collective.

The Don Juans currently are enjoying the experience of having 4 records reaching hit proportions and are popular night club favorites.

Dr. Fred A. Jeffers is general chairman for the concert. All

People's Column

Appreciates His Spirit

To the Editors: It is my opinion that all residents of Birmingham should extend a great big THANK YOU to Lt. Henry Timm of the Birmingham police department.

Each year, Lt. Timm donates his time, energy, money and equipment for the enjoyment of all in sending lovely Christmas music into the heart of the business district in our town.

We love it. Thank you, sir. MRS. R. R. RILEY 1229 1/2 Ave. Birmingham
