Graefield Family Moves To New Home in Kentucky

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Duffy, formerly of Graefield court will spend the Christmas holidays in their new home in Louisville, Ky.

The Duffys and their two daughters, three-year-old Patty and three-month-old Kathleen, moved to Louisville Dec. 17. Mr. Duffy who is associated with Reynolds Metal Corporation, was transferred to that city several weeks ago. Their new address is 3107 Marion, House on Acres, Louisville, Ky.

In November the Rev. Eugene Dabick officiated at the christening of Kathleen Margaret Duffy, at Holy Name Church, Kathleen, born Sept. 2 at New Grace hospital, Detroit, has as her godfather Mr. Duffy's brother, Richard E. Duffy and as her proxy godmother Mrs. Richard E. Duffy of La Jolla, Calif. godmother, who was unable to attend the ceremony is Mrs. William P. Duffy of Cincinnati, Ohio. Mr. Duffy's mother, Mrs. Margaret Duffy, also of Cincinnati, attended the christening.

Kathleen's dress was a third generation, old-fashioned heirloom dress of white hand embroidery, 20 years old and was originally worn by Mr. Duffy's father at his christening.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Marker of Witherbee and their son Christopher will have as their guests over the Christmas and New Year holidays Mrs. Marker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jewell A. Davis of Jacksonville, Fla. They will arrive Dec. 21 and plan to stay ten days.

CUB SCOUTS B-23
Cub Pack B-23 met at Penitence school Monday evening Dec. 19 for their monthly pack meeting. The soft strains of Christmas carols set the mood for the evening.

Boys of Den 3 led the flag ceremony. Cubmaster Ronald Barber presented awards to the following boys: Gregory Akin and Walk Lindow, bear badges; David Halsey and James Middlemas, wolf badge.

Arrow points were earned by Gregory Akin, Larry Hanson, Owen Davis, Ivo Feather, Pat Kaufmann and Dave Einton.

Den 1 presented a tableau of the Nativity. As Miss Wilkinson read the Christmas poem about children in different lands, den members appeared in native costumes.

Frank Ward, pack chairman, announced the pack was making plans to visit the Fort Wayne Armory on Wednesday, Dec. 28, with dads furnishing the transportation. From the enthusiasm this lot of news received, it would be difficult to judge who will enjoy the trip the most—the Lads or the Dads.

Fancy games were passed out to all children present and the meeting concluded with everyone wishing each other a Merry Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Chapman of Graefield road entertained at dinner on Saturday evening 16 members of their families from Ann Arbor and Detroit. The affair was in complete keeping with the holiday season from the Christmas tree to the exchanging of presents, with the remainder of the evening being spent playing cards.

Christmas will be a true family affair at the Victor G. Vaughan, Jr. home on Graefield road. Due to arrive on Dec. 24th are Mrs. Vaughan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin L. Doyle of Garden City, N. Y. and her brother Jerry, a freshman at Marquette University, Milwaukee, Wis.

Also arriving on the same day will be Mr. Vaughan's parents, the Victor G. Vaughan Sr. from Attleboro, Mass. and his sister Mary Elizabeth of Lexington, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan will entertain approximately 40 guests at an open house on New Year's day and James Middlemas, wolf badge.

★ Smile A Minute
The school visitor was putting questions to a class of boys. He nodded to a little fellow with curly black hair.
"Do you know the Ten Commandments?" he asked.
"No, sir," said the boy.
"What? You don't know the Ten Commandments? What's your name?"
"Moses," said the boy.
