NANCY ANNE JACOBI

PAULA McDONALD

Tree Ornaments Tell Engagement

Gold and silver ornaments on the Christmas tree told the news of the engagement of Paula Jean McDonald and George Beech. This was the climax of a Christmas party given Monday by Paula's parents, the Paul McDonalds in their Lake Park drive home.

Paula's fiance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Beech of Farmington.

Both young people are students at Michigan State university. Paula, a junior, is affiliated with Alpha Phi, while George, a senior, is a member of Phi Delta Theta.

For the party, Paula wore a beautiful dress of striped taffeta, which she designed and made. A fall wedding is planned.

Honored at Culver

Cadet Frederick Handren, son of Frederick C. Handren, Puritan road, Birmingham who awarded a monogram at Culver Military academy, as a member of the Battery H ornamental championship swimming team. Cadet Handren is presently here in Birmingham for his Christmas holiday.

Meet Wednesday

Birmingham chapter 226, OES, will meet at 8 p.m., Jan. 4, at the Masonic temple.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all news—the society editor about them.
