Norman Strouse Family Hold Last Reunion in Birmingham

The family reunion held at the Norman Strouse home of Snowshoe circle on Christmas Day marked the last of their family gatherings to be held in Birmingham.

Norman and Charlotte are settled in that Park avenue apartment and now call New York City their home.

The past week was an extremely busy one for Mrs. Strouse. Guests started arriving by plane on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. John Sewell (Patsy Strouse) flew in from Seaside, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. William Edwards and their son, Jeffrey, arrived from Cincinnati. Mrs. Eve Merrill came in from Montreal. Mrs. Louis Auger of Detroit was at the reunion and, of course, the Strouse's son, Stanley Holt.

Norman and Charlotte Strouse have not changed their address without regret. They loved the ranch home on Snowshoe circle, their friends here, and the way of life Birmingham had to offer. Strouse had named president of the J. Walter Thompson Advertising Agency earlier this year with headquarters in New York.

Last Thursday, before Kathie Naughton entertained at a holiday party in her home on Gilbert Lake road, she and her guests were caroling throughout the neighborhood. Gail Reilly and Nancy Fry were among the carolers along with Laureen Pinkerman of Pontiac, Mary Ellis and Nancy Erdmann. Kathy is the daughter of the Bart Naughtons of Gilbert Lake road.

BOWLING CLUB

Instead of heading for the bowl-

Annual Christmas Caroling, Bonfire Held at Intersection

Christmas Day, and what a merriment it was, is over but the season and the spirit of the season is still here. Carolers are singing and everywhere they go someone is made a little happier.

The traditional bonfire and caroling was held under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. James Zawinski again this year at the corner of Dunblaine and Madison. More than 50 youngsters and parents, too, sang carols until their voices were hoarse, their fingers cold and noses red, and then were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Ryckman for a warm drink and a bite to eat.

This was an exceptionally nice Christmas for Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Wayack and daughters Jo Elaine and Nancy. It was their first Christmas in their new home at 10236 Kinross. However, they missed their friends in Flint, their old home town, so, the weekend before Christmas they were house-guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dan I. Dunsons in Flint and Christmas was celebrated at that time with old friends and relatives.

Jo Elaine will return to Kalamazoo after New Year, to resume her nurse training at Huron hospital. Nancy is a junior at Shrine high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Vincent and sons, Kent and Craig, moved from their home at 1074 Lauderdale and are now living at 3811 Wedgewood drive in the Berkshires. Mrs. Vincent is overjoyed in living on more than an acre of land and loves looking out at the big trees and the big open view. Last evening they entertained at a Christmas party for a few of their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Storey are entertaining this year at a New Years Eve party in their home at 1011 Lauderdale. Mrs. Storey is giving a bridge luncheon this afternoon for a few of her friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Foley and daughter Maureen are leaving today for Chicago where they will be house-guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Doyle until after New Years.

Mr. and Mrs. William Howard of Daytona Beach, Fla., are visiting their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Doyle, 17111 Buckingham this holiday season. The Doyles had an open house for neighbors Tuesday evening so that their parents might meet them.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank N. Hilton of Shipman and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hawthorne of Birmingham were Christmas dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moore on Trinity in Detroit.

On Monday, Mrs. Hilton entertained her two sisters-in-law, Miss Violet Hilton and Miss Madeline Hilton at a luncheon.

ing lanes at their last meeting, the Women's Bowling Club went to Fox and Gables for lunch and a grab bag gift party. The group got together and donated funds to buy turkeys for the needy.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bay of Quarton road will entertain some of the members of their dance club at a cocktail party on Dec. 30.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Dussau will have open house for their neighbors at their North Millersay home on Sunday, Jan. 1, starting at 2:00 p.m.

The Russell Frinks of Lone Pine Village were grandparents of an 8 pound, 12 1/2 ounce girl, Sandra Lynn, born Dec. 6 at Beaumont hospital. Sandra's parents are the from Milwaukee for the Christmas holiday. The Keatings' daughters, Ann and Jean were also along, and the tiny girls loved the big tree that glowed in Mrs. Duffy's auditorium room.

The Jim Peabodys of Lane lake had 31 guests sharing their huge turkey last Sunday.

Yesterday, the Carleton Frenchs of Port Huron came to stay with Wilma and Jim and will help them celebrate Saturday night for a happy 26.
