Schoolmates Meet for Annual Reunion at D. E. Irwin Home

Christmas is a time for memories, and friends who attended Central High school together, and have assembled once every year since graduation into the flesh, gathered at the Donald E. Irwin home on Westlough road last week.

Major part of the evening was spent in catching up on the events of the past year in the different households. A highlight of the entertainment was the reading aloud of such epigrams from the graduation yearbook.

Exchange of Christmas gifts and the serving of refreshments were crowded in amongst the chatter. Present were: Mrs. John Baker, newly moved to Melrose; Mrs. D. P. Green and Mrs. Robert Wall; Bradley Hall of Royal Oak; Mrs. Vincent Hurter of Beverly; Mrs. Lawson Blitt; Mrs. George Lowie; Mrs. Virginia Fritz; Mrs. Genevieve Brock; Mrs. Dorothy Bennett; Mrs. John Gagnon; Joan Van Wormer; Betty Gibson of Detroit; and the hostess, Mrs. Donald Irwin.

A large crowd gathered at the John Buhls home on Westlough road for cocktails in honor of Mrs. Buhls' father, James Janedis, before his departure for Christmas in Europe. Family and friends from Detroit, Birmingham and Pontiac were present to say their farewells.

Janedis, proprietor of Vincent's Dining Room in Beavercreek, Rochester, had his restaurant during his absence, and took aboard with him a car in which to travel with the company in Europe. Family and friends who drove to New York to see him off when he sailed, are expected to be back home sometime in January.

Greenwald gold Christmas decorations set the theme for the open house at the David A. Youngblood home on Westlough road. Dinner, hors d'oeuvres and cocktails accompanied the cocktails as many friends gathered for a joyous evening.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Art Simpson; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Shaw; the John Smalls, the Carroll Heights and the Marvin Gledhill Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Lancaster of Farmington, the M. C. Bellows and the Milton Boyd of Greasewood; the Les Gielows, the Bill Stumbers, the Mary Jacobs, the Sam Jacobs, the Sam Robinsons, the Fred Lukers, the Sam Robinsons, the Roy Gledhill, the Lester Reddishes and Mrs. Dora Gledhill of Detroit.

Suburban Living Draws Three New Families to Area

WALNUT LAKE—Mr. and Mrs. W. Mitchell Middleton, of East Hartwood road, have moved into their new home the latter part of November. The Middletons, formerly of Grosse Pointe Woods, find this location much more convenient for the family broadcaster, who is associated with the Chevrolet Motor Division of the General Motors proving grounds.

The family includes Pamela, 10 years old, Linda, 7, and Karen, 4. The older two girls are now enrolled in the Walnut Lake school. The Middletons attend the Central Methodist Church in Detroit, where they are active members of various church groups.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Brundage of Summit Drive, recently moved to Royal Oak, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Hinshaw, Sr., of Royal Oak, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Hinshaw of Hadley, Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Hinshaw, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. C. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Shirley, all of Farmington, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eagle of Southfield. Gifts were exchanged during the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Chandler, of Kemper road, entertained at a pre-holiday cocktail party. Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Ackerman of Bloomfield Hills, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Plot, Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Whalwright,

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Floyd, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Page, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kropp of Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Seesholtz of Grosse Pointe.

Turner is with the Detroit branch of the Aluminum Company of America. He is a golf enthusiast, and his wife enjoys golfing and sewing.

Mr. and Mrs. James Reynolds of Westlough road, recently moved here from Chagrin Falls, Ohio, a suburb of Cleveland. The Turners have a son, Jerry, 8 years old, and a daughter, Kristin, 3. Jerry attends the Walnut Lake school, and is already an active Cub Scout leader, an organization to which Mrs. Turner also donates her services.

Reynolds is associated with the Ford Motor company. The Reynolds are familiar with this part of the country, having lived in Birmingham five years ago.

Kenneth Herman Family Continue Holiday Whirl

The Kenneth Hermans, Captains lane, have been on a holiday which began prior to Thanksgiving and will keep them in a whirl of social activity into the New Year.

They spent Thanksgiving in Palm Springs with his mother, Mrs. A. A. Herman, having with them their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Koch of Huntington Woods, and grandchildren Mike and John. The party took three apartments at the Dearest Island Hotel in Palm Springs and returned to Franklin in mid-December.

The Hermans have had as their house guest part of this week Miss Caroline Keefe, of Nanuet, N. Y., a friend of son Kenneth, Jr., who is a senior at Michigan State. The two flew back to Caroline's home for Christmas and returned to Franklin yesterday. They will spend New Year's Eve at Boyne Mountain and will stay there for two weeks of skiing.

Mrs. Herman was hostess to 50 guests at luncheon at the City Club last Thursday. Dinner guests on Christmas day were the Kochs, the John Lindstroms and their son John, and Mrs. Harry O. Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wagner were hosts last night at a holiday dinner party at their home on Charles lane.

Dr. and Mrs. Lynn Hershey, of Ramble road, were hosts to a group of friends at a cocktail party at Forest Lake country club this holiday week.

The Harold Roseberry's will be hosts next Tuesday night at a dinner party at their home on Wellington road honoring Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Cook who moved recently from Grand Rapids to Birmingham. Other guests that evening will come from Birmingham and Grand Rapids.

The George Howards held open house for their neighbors on the South Greenbrier area on the Sunday preceding Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Deek held open house at their home on the Cliffords.

Guests of the Clifford Dixons for dinner on Christmas day were his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George Nye of Lima, Ohio.

Jimmy Woodburn, a student at Culver Military academy, is home with his parents, the Ralph Woods, of Telegraph road, for the holidays.

Family Gatherings Celebrate Festive Christmas Season

The sentiment and tradition of the Christmas holiday was celebrated in the home of the Ralph Darlings, of Sunningdale, Christmas eve.

Among the Darlings' children and grandchildren gather at grandmother's for turkey and all the trimmings on Christmas eve. They are, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Darling and sons, Ricky, Tommy and Gary; Foxcroft and Mr. and Mrs. James A. Finnigan and children, Susan and Craig of Detroit.

Other guests were Mrs. Fittengale's mother, Mrs. Margaret Platt and Mrs. Ginger Baer, both of Upper Strats lane.

Guests arrived at 5:00 at which time two Christmas stories were read to the children by Mrs. Darling. Following this was the opening of the gifts and then the turkey dinner at 6:30.

After dinner, the group sang Christmas carols and enjoyed the traditional plum pudding, allanied with burning brandy. The remainder of the evening was spent in enjoyment, thought and general conversation.

Christmas day was enjoyed at the Frank Breesacher's, West Maple with a dinner entertaining Mr. Breesacher's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Breesacher of Toledo, Ohio.

Mrs. Ed Fuller entertained for eight at Christmas cocktails and luncheon Dec. 21 at her home on Worlington road. Mrs. Douglas Bass was guest of honor. After Christmas guests enjoyed a Christmas gift exchange, played Christmas music and sang.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gack, Mrs. Walter Jones, Mrs. Jack Irvine, Mrs. Ray Peiffer, Mrs. Frank Kolk, Mrs. Douglas Bass and Mrs. Heber Fish.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robinson, Sunningdale, are hosting a sizeable family gathering this year for the holiday season. It is the first time since she and her brother and sister were children at home that they have all been together for Christmas. This is a thrill for them all as they have with them to enjoy the reunion, their 23-year-old mother, who makes her home with the Robinsons.

Present are Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Robinson of Madison, N. J., and daughter, Pat, a student at Michigan State university. They plan on remaining throughout the holidays from Seattle, Wash. are Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hutton who are arriving from Sunningdale and remained for three days.

For Christmas dinner, additional guests were Mrs. Robinson's aunt, Mrs. Murtle Gabbish of Detroit and son Bob's friend, Miss Cindy Sveen of Berkeley.

Mrs. William Theodore Jones

Monterey court entertained her son and family over the holidays. They are Donald Jones, his wife and Phyllis and children, Michael and Billy of Milwaukee, Wis.

For Christmas dinner, they were joined by her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nelson of Bloomfield Hills.

Holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Glen James Wing Lake road are Mrs. James' sister and family, Commander and Mrs. Robert Steeg and five children, James, Shelley, Robin, Shawn and Hilary. The Steegs are stationed in Norfolk, Va.

For Christmas dinner, they went to the home of Mrs. James' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Dahl, Highland Park.

Amusing and Varied Apparel At 'Come-As-You-Are' Party

Telephones rang at 11 hours last week to ask friends to a "Come as You Are" party at the Robert L. Wink home on Old Mill road. The party took place Thursday, Dec. 22.

Guests arrived in all different guises. There was everything from gaudy striped nightshirts and lounge attire to cocktail clothes and sportswear. Some were most amusing.

After cocktails and dinner, party guests engaged in playing several games. The Wink home was artistically decorated for the party and holidays with a pale pink lily and overflowing with green ornaments and a beautiful white Christmas tree decorated with pink and aqua ornaments with silver sparkling stars.

Christmas day was enjoyed at the Frank Breesacher's, West Maple with a dinner entertaining Mr. Breesacher's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Breesacher of Toledo, Ohio.

NEW ARRIVAL

Better late than never comes the announcement of the arrival of Ann Theresa Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Turner of Ann Rose court. Ann was born November 10 at Mt. Carmel hospital by their "kiss" the day after Christmas in the Reason home. The theme of the party was Hawaiian.

Birds of Paradise in an unusual Hawaiian arrangement formed the centerpiece for the dining room table.

To get the senior Reasons out of the house in order to prepare for the party, the Reason's daughter and son-in-law invited them over for lunch and to see their new apartment which they moved into three days before Christmas.

Rudely working to get things in order while the Reasons were out, were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reason of Old Mill road, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Reason of East Berkeley Trail, William Reason, home for the holidays from Norfolk Va., and Daniel R. Reason of Long Beach, Calif. Approximately 45 guests helped surprise the senior Reasons.

Christmas morning Mrs. Keating had the whole family over for breakfast. Wishing Merry Christmas to one another were the Timothy Grace family, Mr. and Mrs. Howard T. Keating, Jr. and children, Howard H. Doug, Kevin and Kathleen; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Keating and children, Peter, Lee, J. and Tyler, and Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Truce and their children, Terry and Kelly Ann. The Graces moved from their home on Wedgewood road Tuesday, Dec. 11 and are now staying with Mrs. C. G. Jones' mother, Mrs. Howard T. Keating of West 13 Mile road, until their home is completed.
